1993-94 Marching Marlins

The Drummers march to their own beat.

The Marching Marlins had a competition season filled with one success after another. The percussion section was undefeated with six first-place awards. The color guard placed in five of six shows with one first place showing.

The marching, music, and general effect captions scored consistently near or in the top positions all year. Band Director David Snead, the Band Parents Organization, and the student musicians put in long hours after school and on weekends to achieve this outstanding record.

Farewell, Dear Friend

Every once in a great while there comes a person who returns the world's harshness with kindness. Such a person overcomes personal grief and pain and greets the world with a smile. Bayside Assistant Principal Charna B. Lane was such a person. Charna always had a ready smile and a kind word for the many students and teachers who turned to her for help and guidance. The hallways seemed emptier this year without this gentle spirit who endured much and gave much. As the Bayside family remembers Charna's patience, we also recall her sense of humor. One Halloween, she arrived at school dressed as a demented surgeon. During Spirit Week, Charna's "nerd" costume was so realistic that many people did not recognize her.

Charna Lane worked tirelessly for Bayside High School. She was instrumental in arranging Bayside's successful Adopt-A-School partnerships. As the assistant principal responsible for instruction, Charna put in countless hours to insure that Bayside students received a quality education. Throughout all of her duties, Charna managed to remain real and accessible.

"It is good to have an end to journey towards; but it is the journey that matters in the end." (Ursula K. LeGuin)

Thank you, Charna, for making the journey brighter, lighter, and more beautiful. We love you still.

Ms. Lane and Carol Blackman share a moment between classes.

Ms. Lane posed with members of the Adopt-A-School committee.

Her desk was always cluttered with papers stacked, strewn or piled; she always had work to do. But it didn't matter; she always had time for anyone. It was more important to her to comfort those who came to her seeking her compassion.

Coach Morag Nocher has been at Bayside High School for the past thirty years. She has seen many teachers and students come and go. Some of the changes have been good and some not so good.

Coach Nocher, affectionately known as "Noch," thinks that the most obvious difference between the 60's and 90's is, "Students aren't as involved academically as before." She also noted that fashions have come, gone, and come back again.

"Noch" also remarked that Bayside's athletic teams started out mediocre, reached a peak, and then started to decline. She thought that it was a natural trend.

"One thing that has never changed is the family spirit that sets Bayside apart from other schools."

by Alex Johnson

Most people know Ms. Nocher as a coach or P.E. teacher. Everyone knows her as a good friend.

Morag Nocher was the coach of the 1977 Eastern District Championship team in girls' field hockey. Her tradition of winning is a part of Bayside history.

Powder Puff

This year, powder puff was more than just a sport. It was about the unity between each and every Marlin, the way the guys cheered for their female counterparts, and the way the females fought effortlessly.

Still, the same thing that happens every year happened this year as well. The ladies took off their nails and dug into the dirt. The men donned skirts and gave all of the support they could muster. The juniors swore that they would have the victory in the palm of their hand while the seniors quietly fixed the game to a more "senior" status.

After the last ball was thrown, the last cheer was cheered, the seniors, again, had won the game of the century.

upper left — Before the game, the seniors stop to show that they are ready.

The Handshake of Peace. On a sunny Monday, September 13, 1993, the Palestine Liberation Organization and the nation of Israel became friends instead of foes. US President Bill Clinton watches as Israel's Yitzhak Rabin and the PLO's Yasser Arafat shook hands for peace.

Midwest Floods. It was the biggest, wettest story of the summer of '93. The stage for disaster was set during the winter, when unusually heavy snow fell. The combination of no winter thaws and heavy spring rains caused record flooding.

More on Floods. The casualties ranged from the thousands left homeless to investors and consumers in every corner of the United States.

The year in review: The 1993-94 school year was marked by drastic changes in the human condition throughout the world.

World Yearbook

Seinfeld. The show started off as an upstart, but by the time they finished handing out the Emmy Awards on Sept. 29, 1993, it had won three trophies.

Pope John Paul II visits U.S. Pope John Paul II used some of his harshest rhetoric to decry abortion and euthanasia during a four-day trip to the U.S. in August, 1993.

Amtrak Crash. An Amtrak train hurtled off a bridge into an inky bayou in Saraland, Alabama, early on the morning of Sept. 22, 1993 Superbowl. The Dallas Cowboys won their second straight National Football League championship by defeating the Buffalo Bills 30-13 on Sunday, January 30, 1994.

Civil War in Bosnia. The civil war in what was once Yugoslavia moved through its second year at a terrible human cost: as many as 200,000 people were dead or missing.

Sheik Omar Abdel-Rahman. When the sheik was charged on Aug. 25, 1993 with commanding "a war of urban terrorism" in NYC, he was already one of the most unpopular figures in the U.S.

Health Care Reform. President Clinton's point man on health care reform in 1993 was his wife, First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton

The year saw more than its share of natural disasters, war and unrest. There were, however, many bright moments also.

World Yearbook

Cold Wave: Across the Northwest, the Midwest, and parts of the South, the extreme cold of Jan. 1994 brought an end to the daily routine.

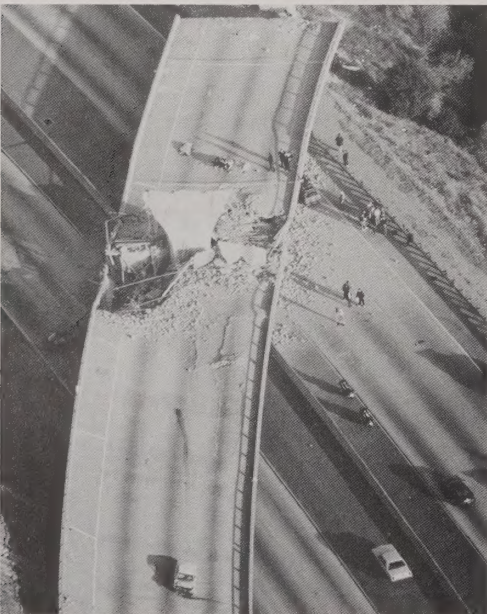

Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg. Declaring that "the times are changing," Ruth Ginsburg became the second woman to sit on the U.S. Supreme Court.

Somalia. United Nations forces launched a manhunt for warlord Mohamed Aidid whose struggle for power led to a full-scale war.

California Earthquake. At 4:13 a.m. on Monday, January 17, 1994, an earthquake of 6.6 magnitude struck Southern California, claiming 61 lives.

Reinventing Government. Flanked by forklifts carrying reams of government rules and regulations, President Clinton and Vice President Gore outlined plans to cut, consolidate, and reshape the federal bureaucracy.

California Earthquake. Five interstate highways, including the state's major north-south route, and three state highways were closed at several points, crippling transportation.

Nirvana. At the 10th Annual MTV Video Music Awards on Sept. 2, 1993 at Universal City, CA, Nirvana's "In Bloom" won the trophy for best alternative video.

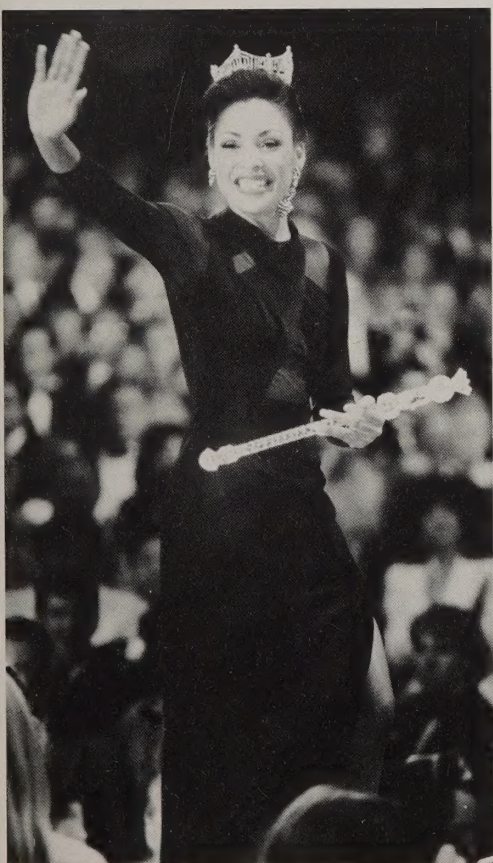

The year saw governments toppled and reinvented. Glory and pain defined the human condition around the world.

World Yearbook

Somalia. The world was drawn to Somalia in 1992 by photographs of starving children. It was almost driven away the following year by photographs of fighting adults.

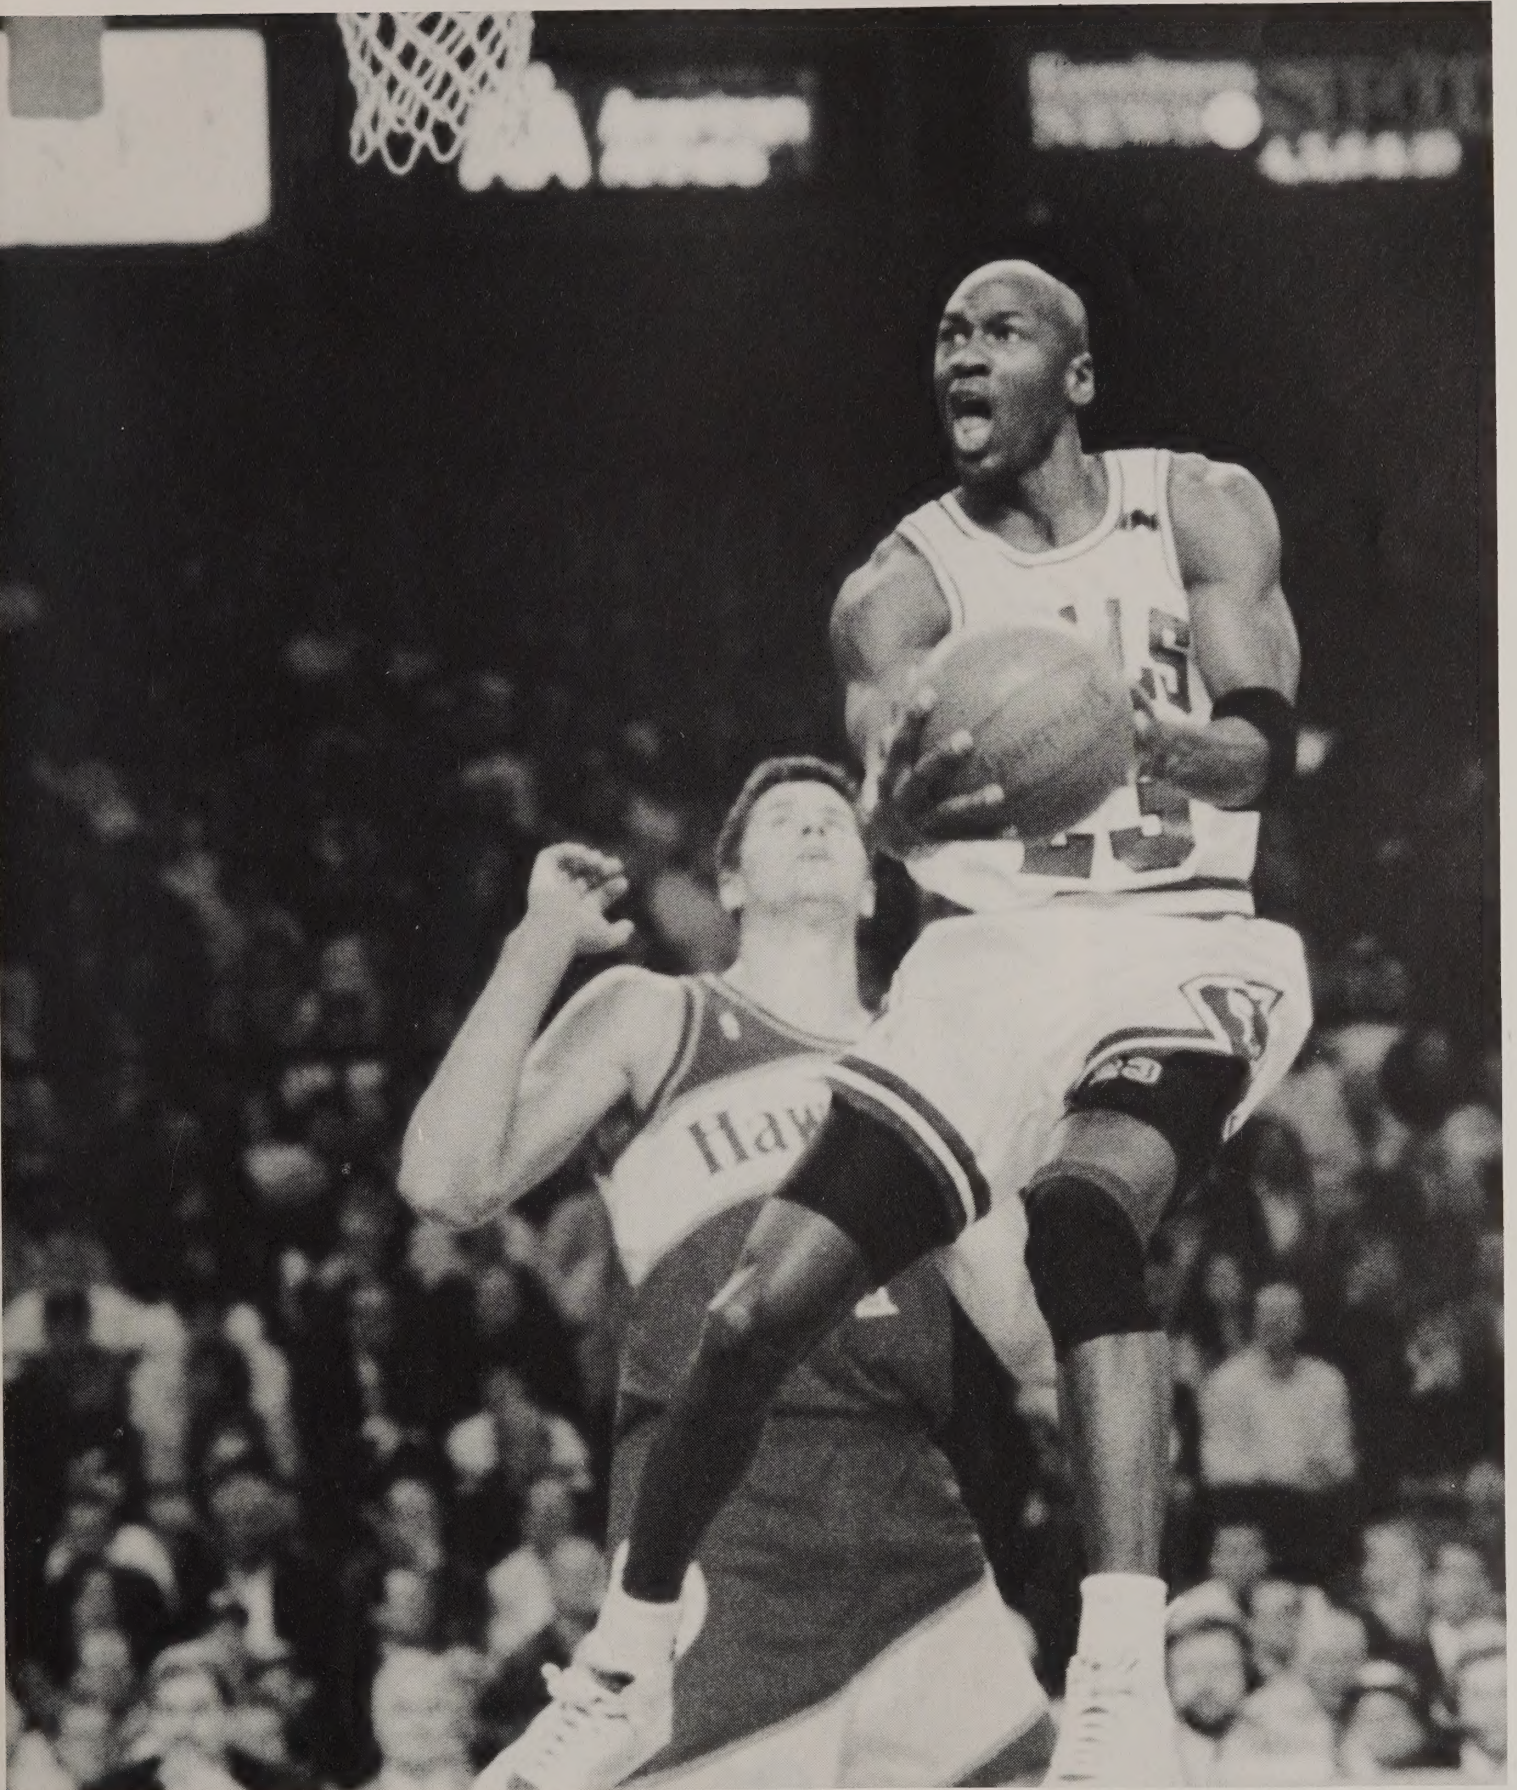

Miss America. 18-year old Kimberly Clarice Aiken, Miss South Carolina, became one of the youngest women to win the Miss America pageant on Sept. 18, 1993.

Civil War in Bosnia. A U.N. observer described Maglaj, a north Bosnian town of 35,000 that was besieged in June by Croats, as "a shattered town of battered people" forced to live underground.

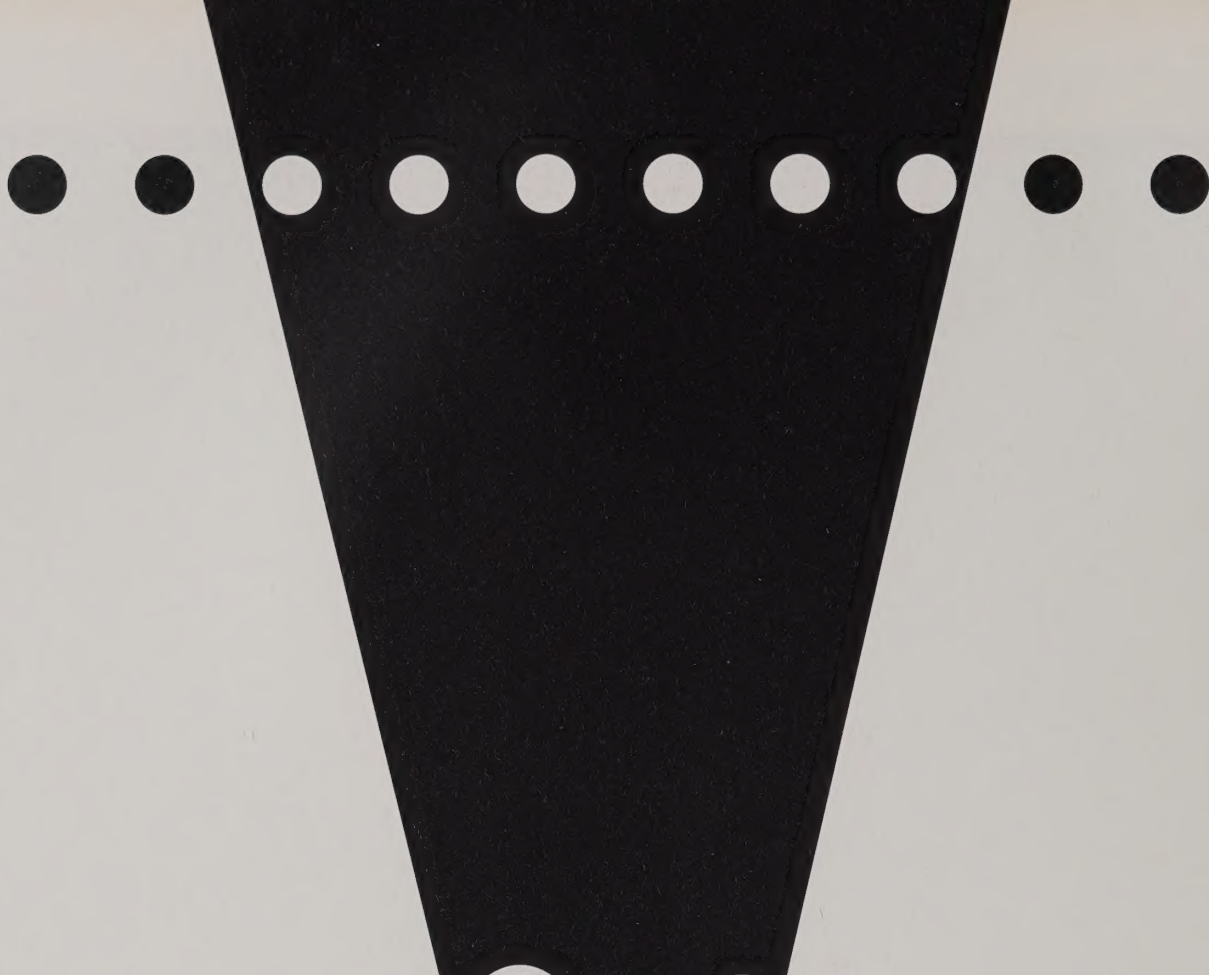

At a sumo tournament in San Jose, CA, on June 5, 1993, AP Photographer Paul Sakuma captured a little boy's joust with a huge sumo wrestler.

World Yearbook

One of the biggest stories of the 1993-94 basketball season occurred before the first pre-season exhibition game — Michael Jordan, the world's best basketball player and one of its most famous athletes, announced his retirement.

Ms. Powell explains the finer points of composition to her attentive class.

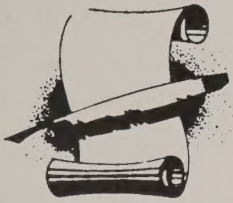

Mrs. Elliot waits patiently for an answer to one of her famous tough questions.

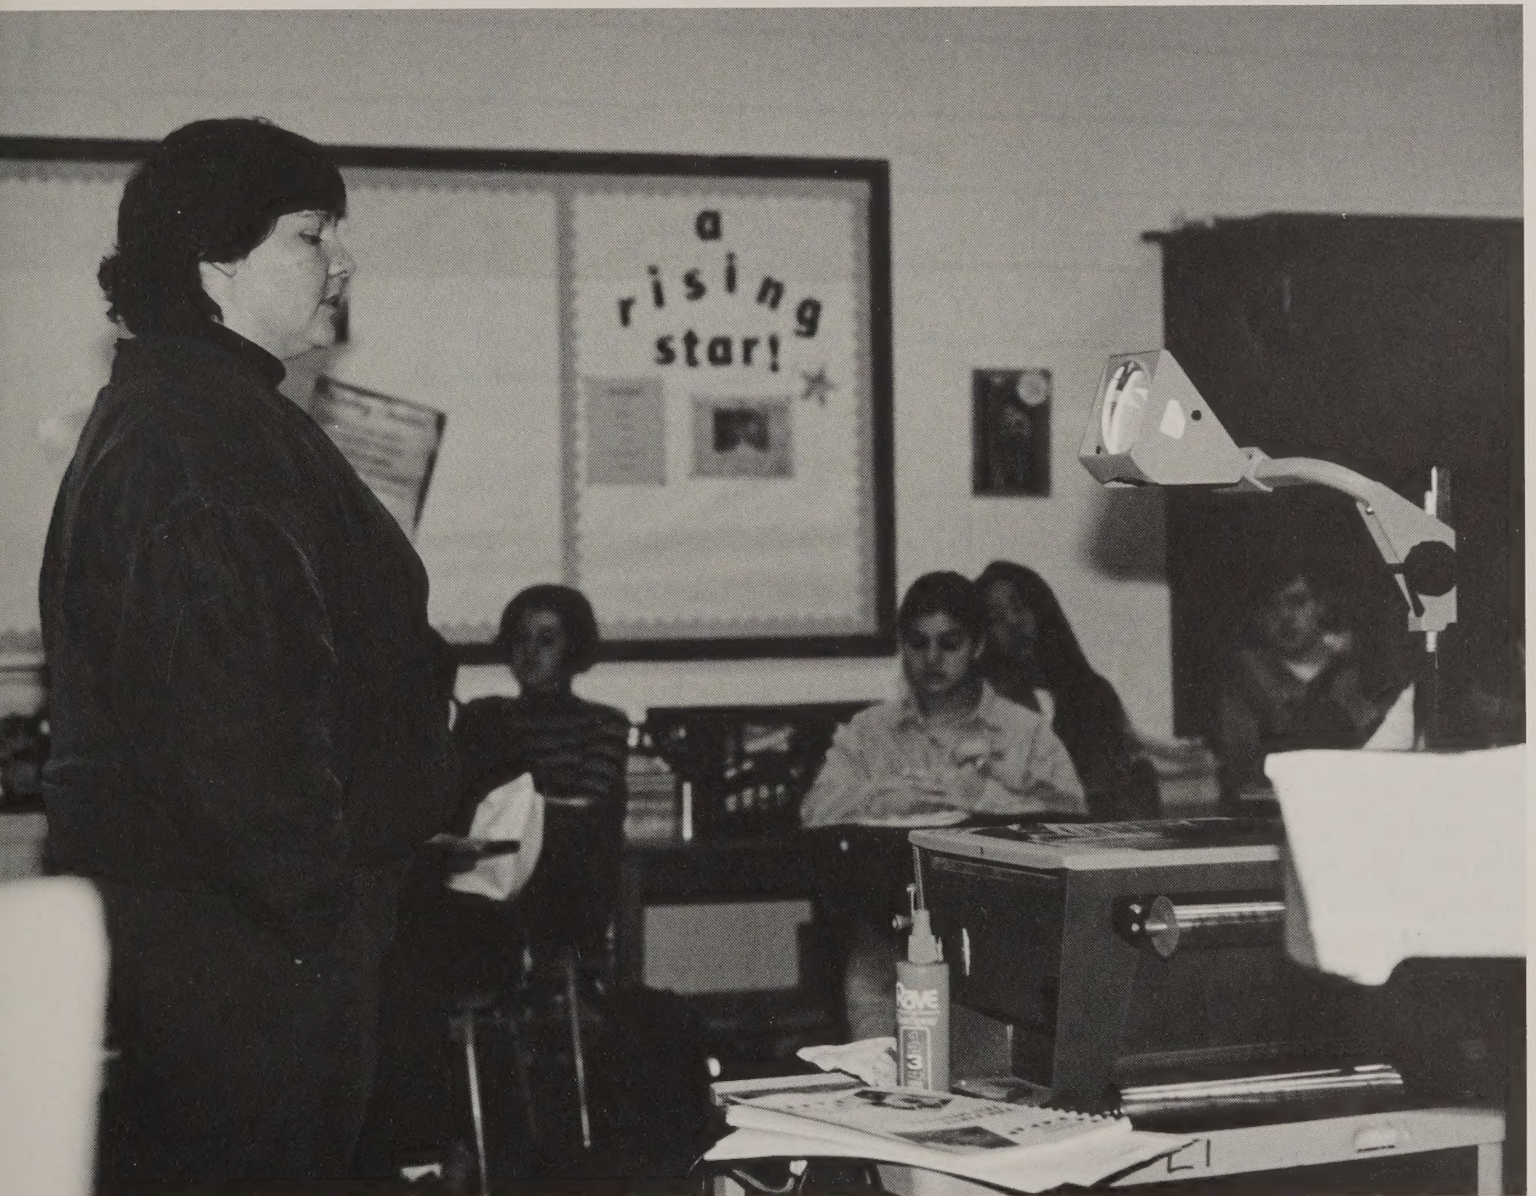

On Task. These students apply themselves to the business of writing.

The Write Stuff!!

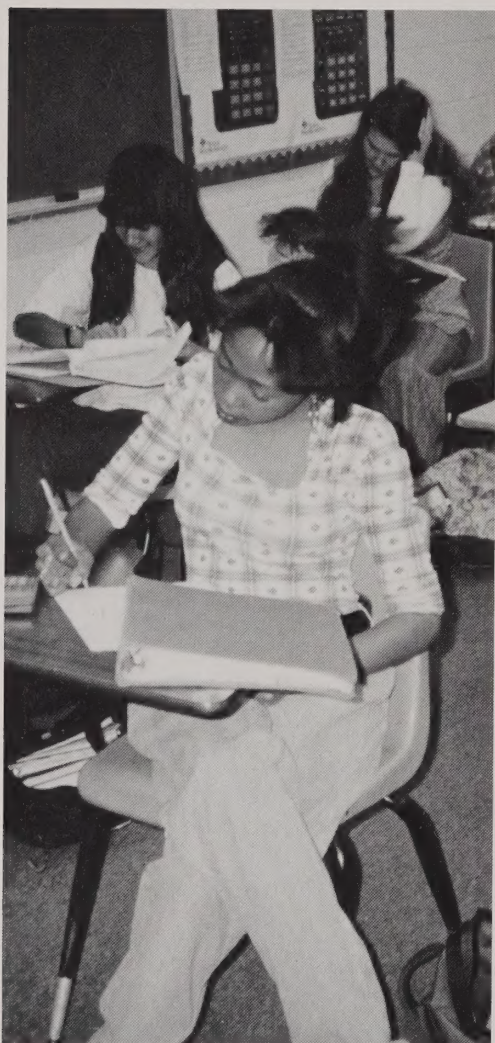

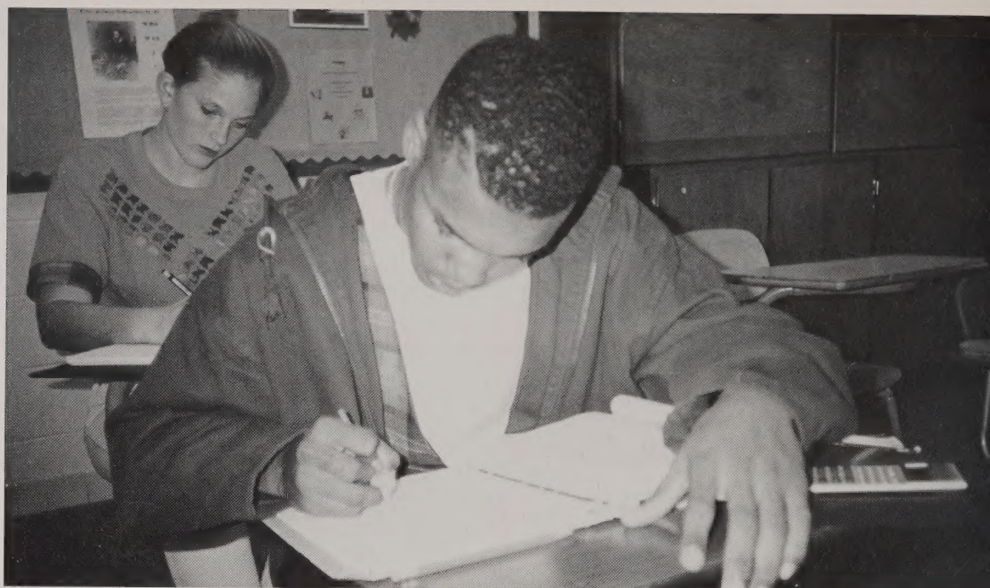

Bayside teachers try to revive the dying art of written expression.

Ms. Powell sponsors the Literary Magazine in addition to her teaching duties. Here, she shares her expertise with her students. The purpose of the Rave hairspray is unknown.

Math requires intense concentration and the right tools. This student seems to have the right attitude and the right equipment.

On Task. These math students display discipline and a sense of teamwork as some complete assignments and others collaborate on problems.

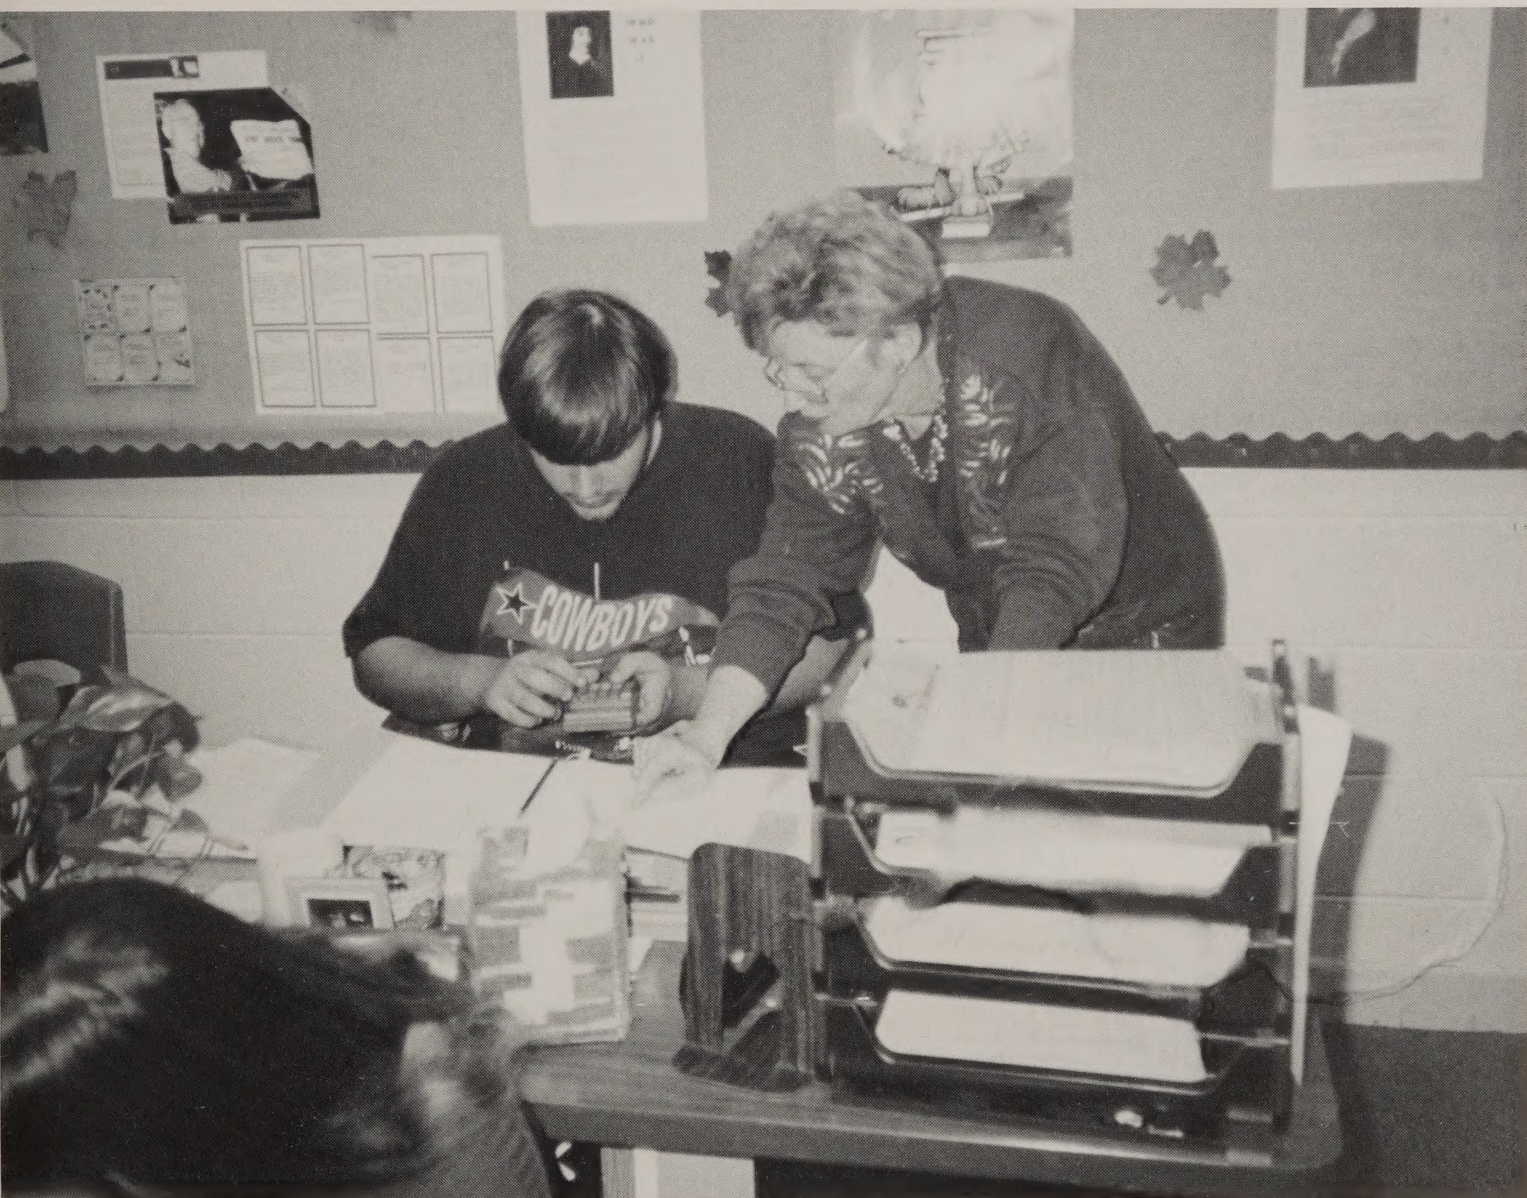

Overhead View. Mr. Parker brings diagrams up-close and personal for his students.

Tallying Success

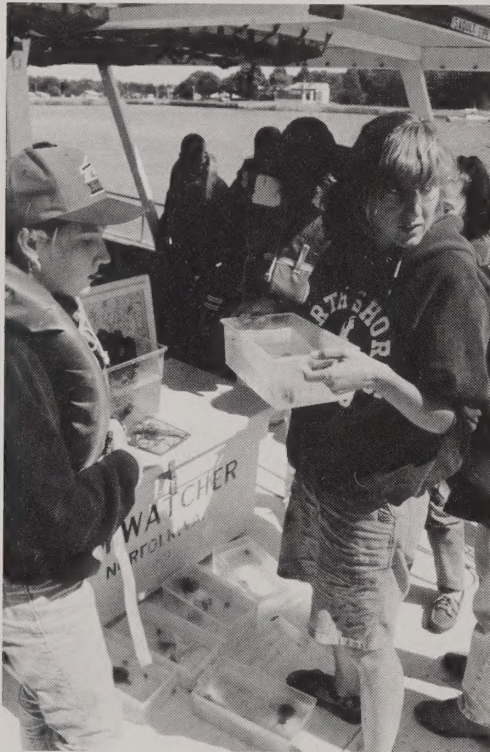

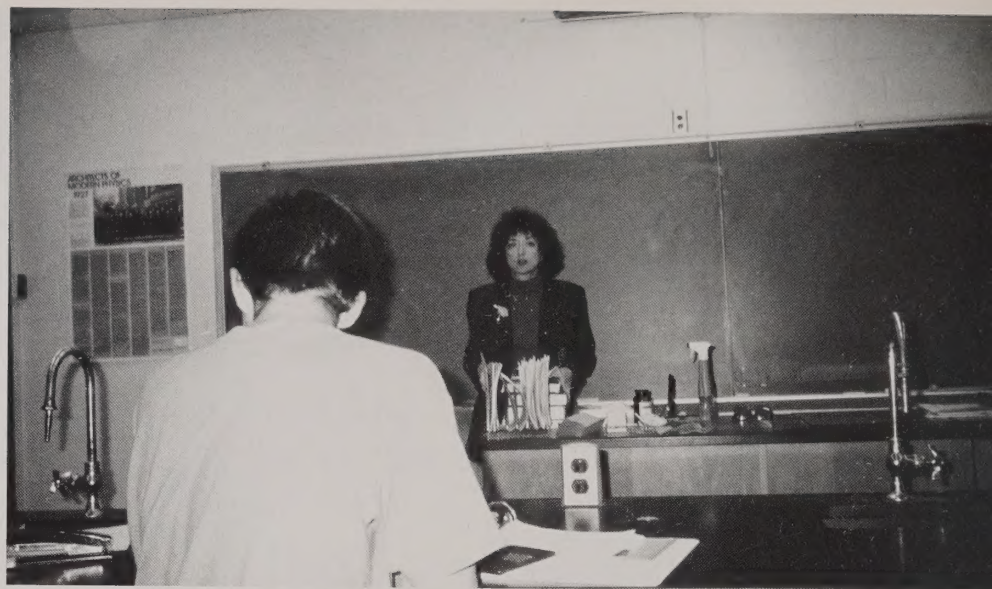

Math teachers help students find right combination.

Mrs. Butler explains the right technique as her student follows along with his calculator in hand.

Ms. Maturo's Advanced Placement Physics class provided a serious challenge to seniors. Although it was demanding, most students believed that it prepared them for college days ahead.

Natasha Lapp observes a specimen on the annual Oceanography boating excursion.

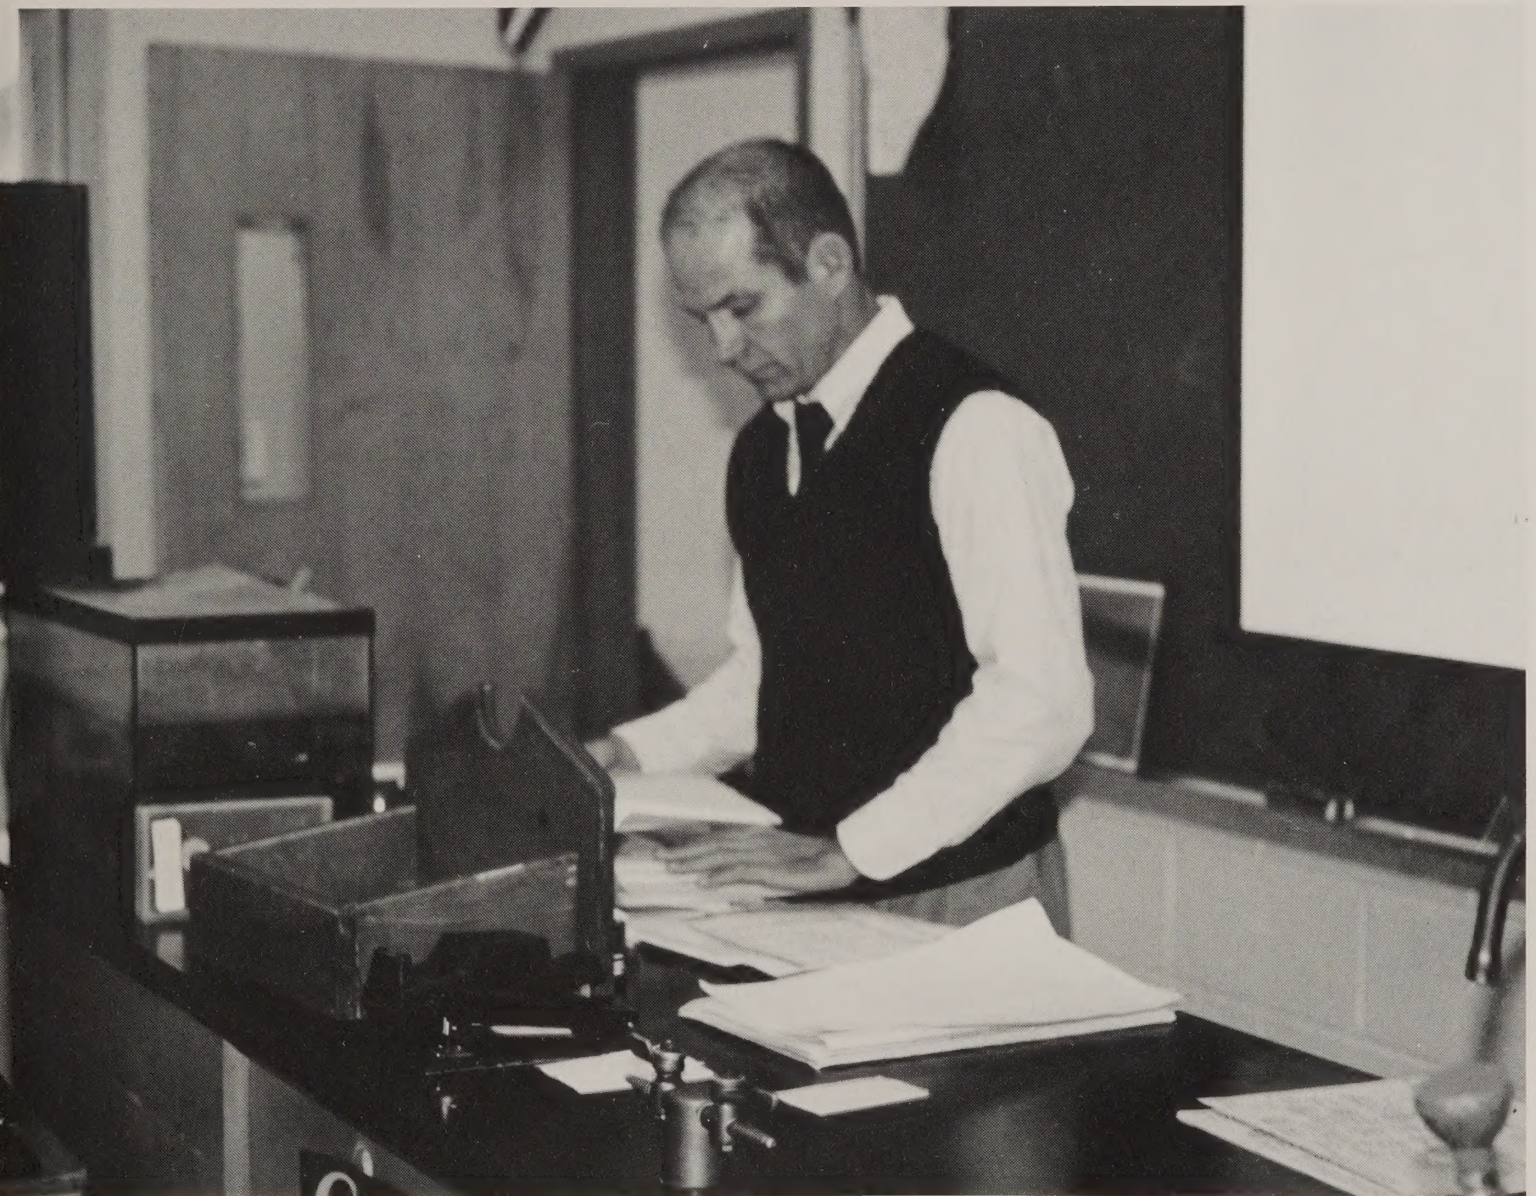

Aboard the Baywatcher, students are expected to pitch in and work.

Beyond Experiments

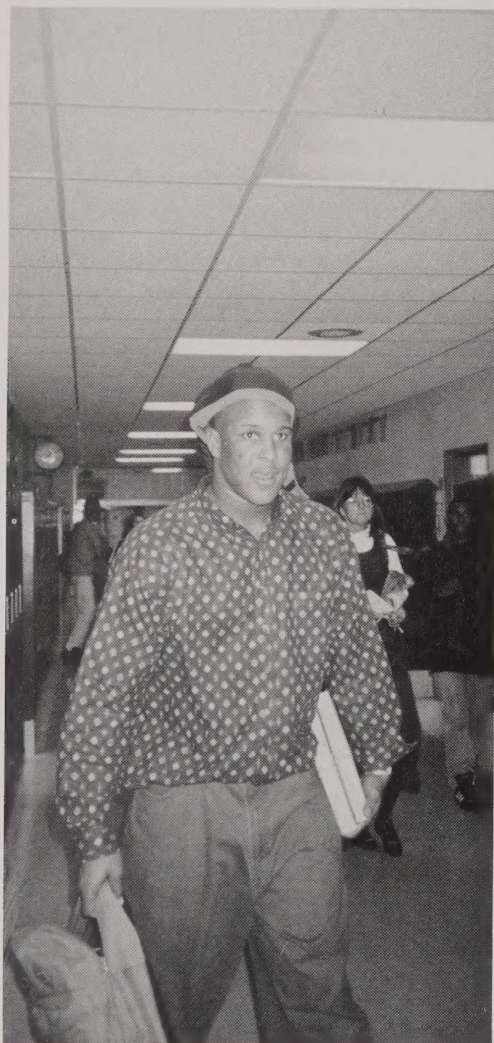

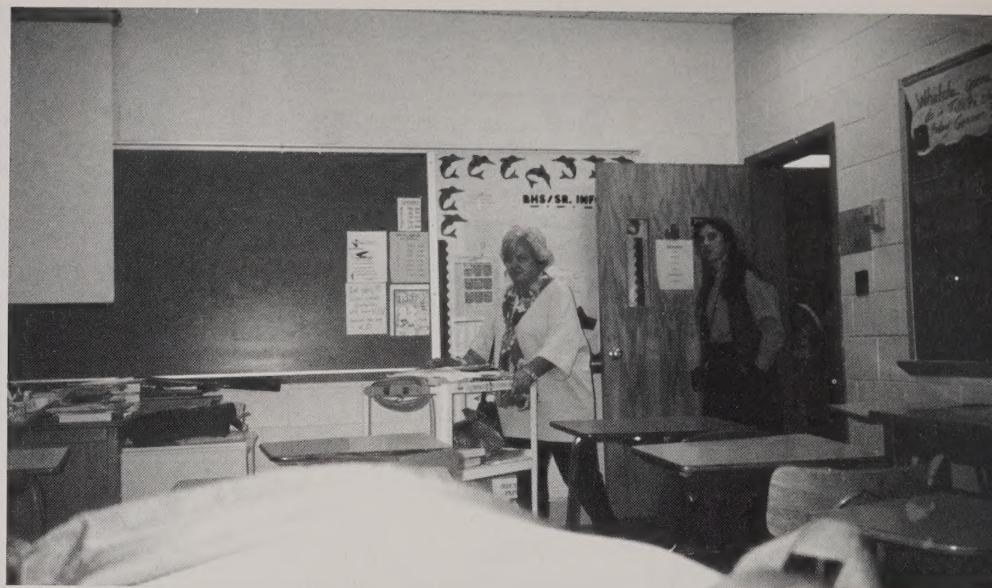

Science students put their knowledge to use through hands-on class activities.

Earth Science teacher George Mizenko prepares for a class.
His students observe and catalog nature on school grounds.

Ms. Blackman enters her Government class prepared for another busy day. Her mock trials and court field trips are legendary.

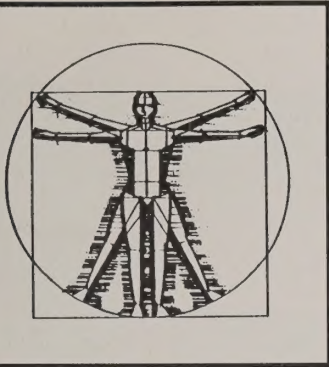

Senior Terrence Williams leaves Government class anxious to complete his day. Government class was the site for many senior activities such as voting for senior superlatives.

U.S. History and World Geography kept underclassmen busy often sending them to the library for research.

History in the Making

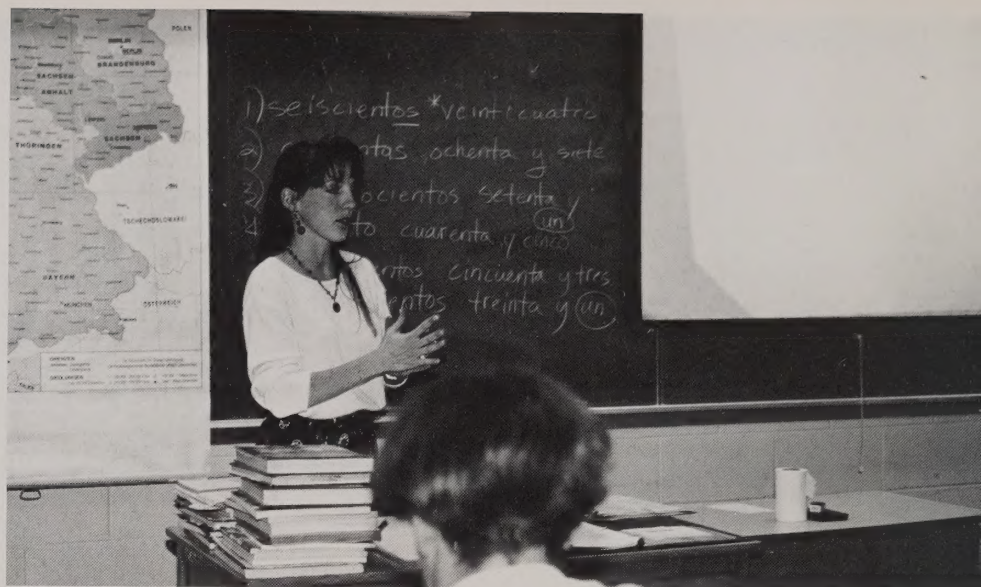

Social Studies classes bring the world in focus for students.

Government class is ritual for seniors and an important step into the adult world. Seniors see it as a hurdle to graduation.

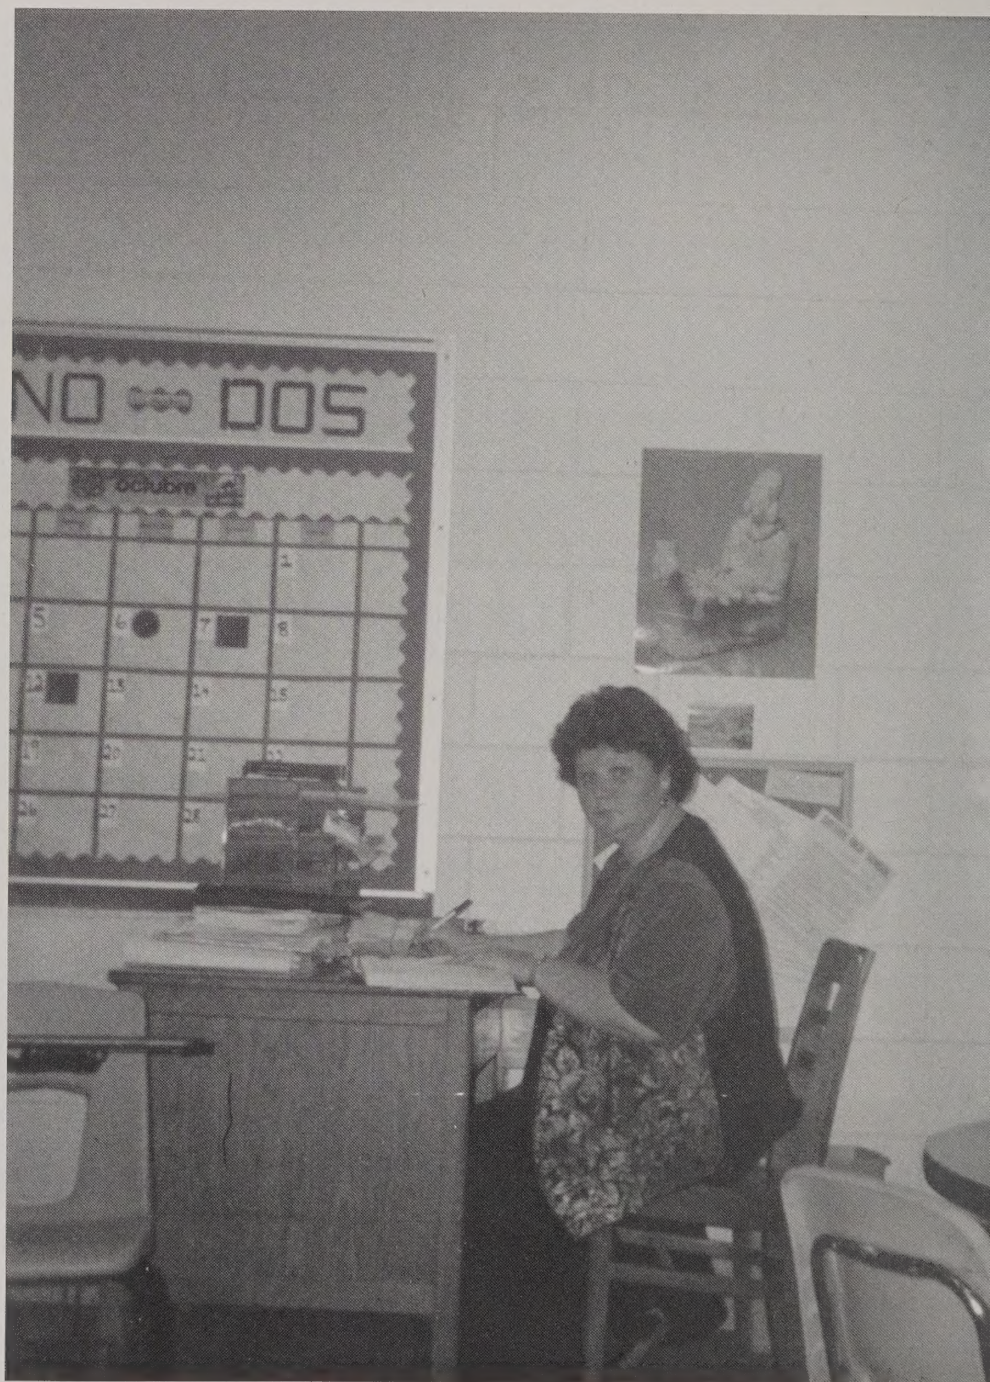

Miss Volrath conducts a Spanish lesson. Foreign language studies not only include speech, but also geography, and culture.

Julian McFadden gets some important last minute tips on the way to French class.

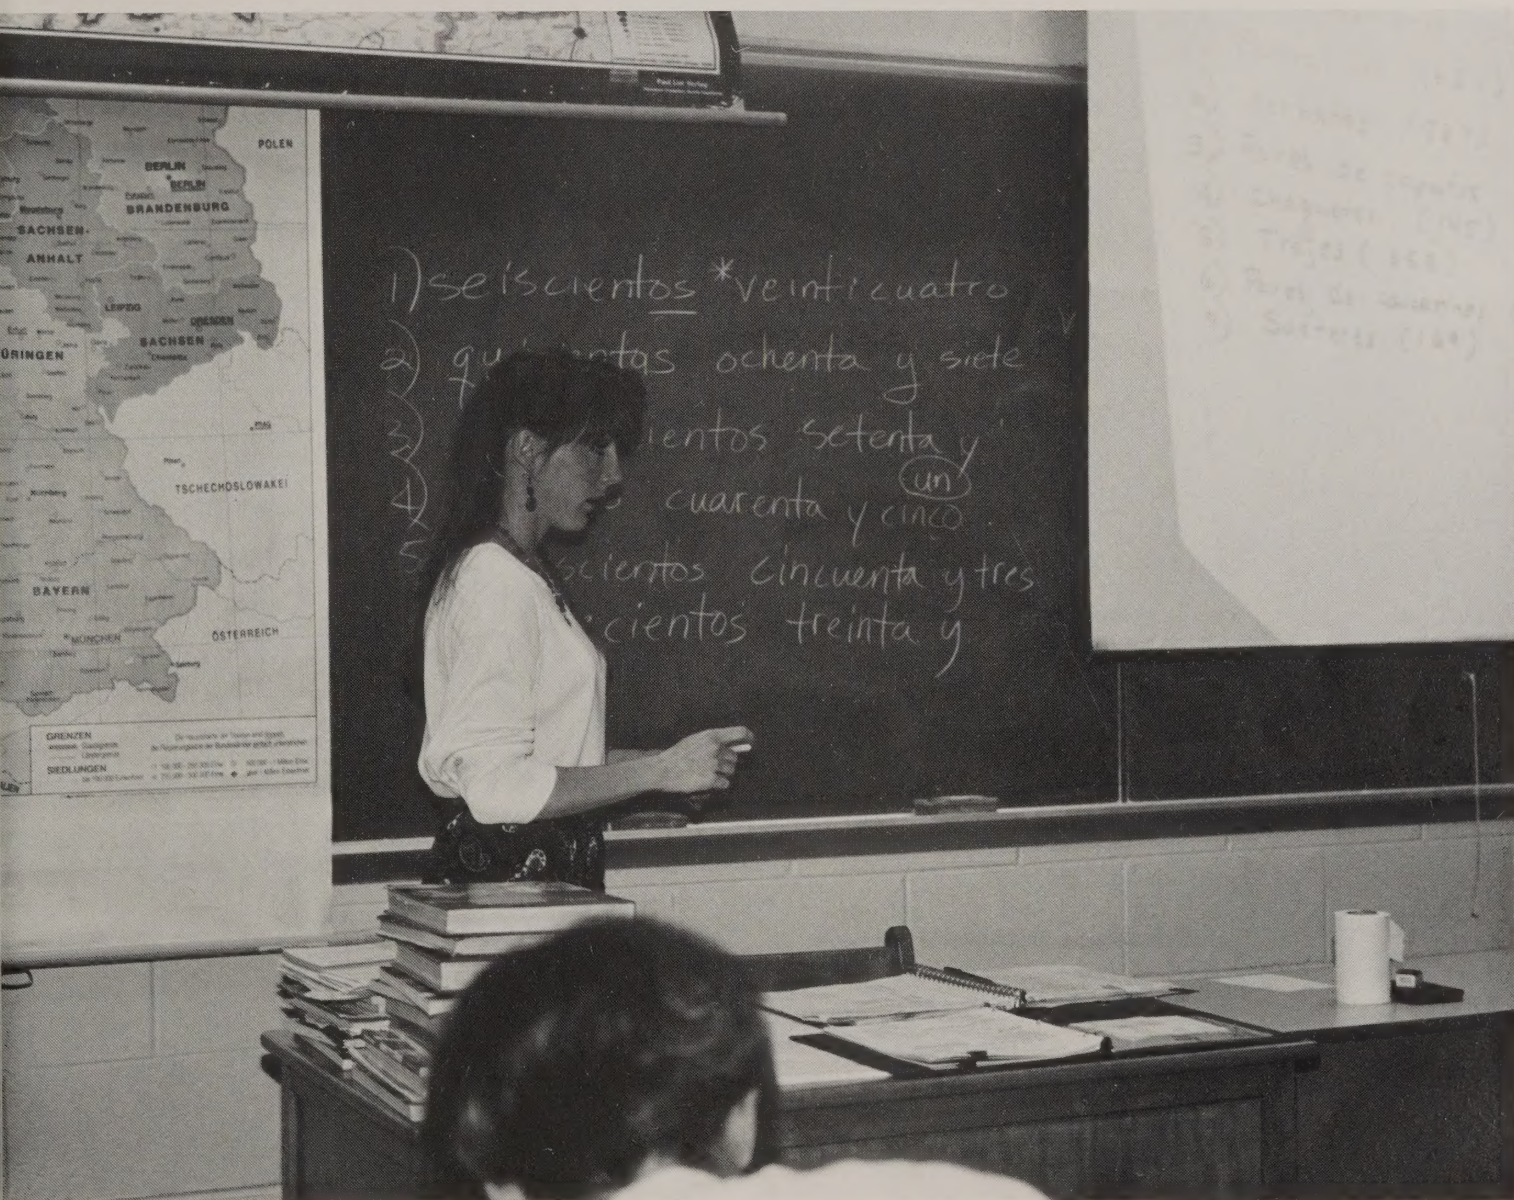

Spanish teacher Ms. Sue Otter prepares a lesson for her class.

Foreign Intrigue

Foreign language teachers open up new worlds for students.

beyond Buenos Dios. Spanish students get the full treatment thanks to Miss Vollrath.

Laying the foundation. These three students worked together to lay out the pattern for a project in Home Economics.

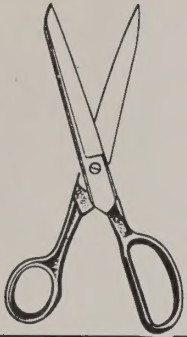

Finished project. This well-made shirt represents hours of long planning and hard work.

Joint Venture . . . Only one person seems to be occupied with the work while the rest of the group . . .

Homestyle Learning

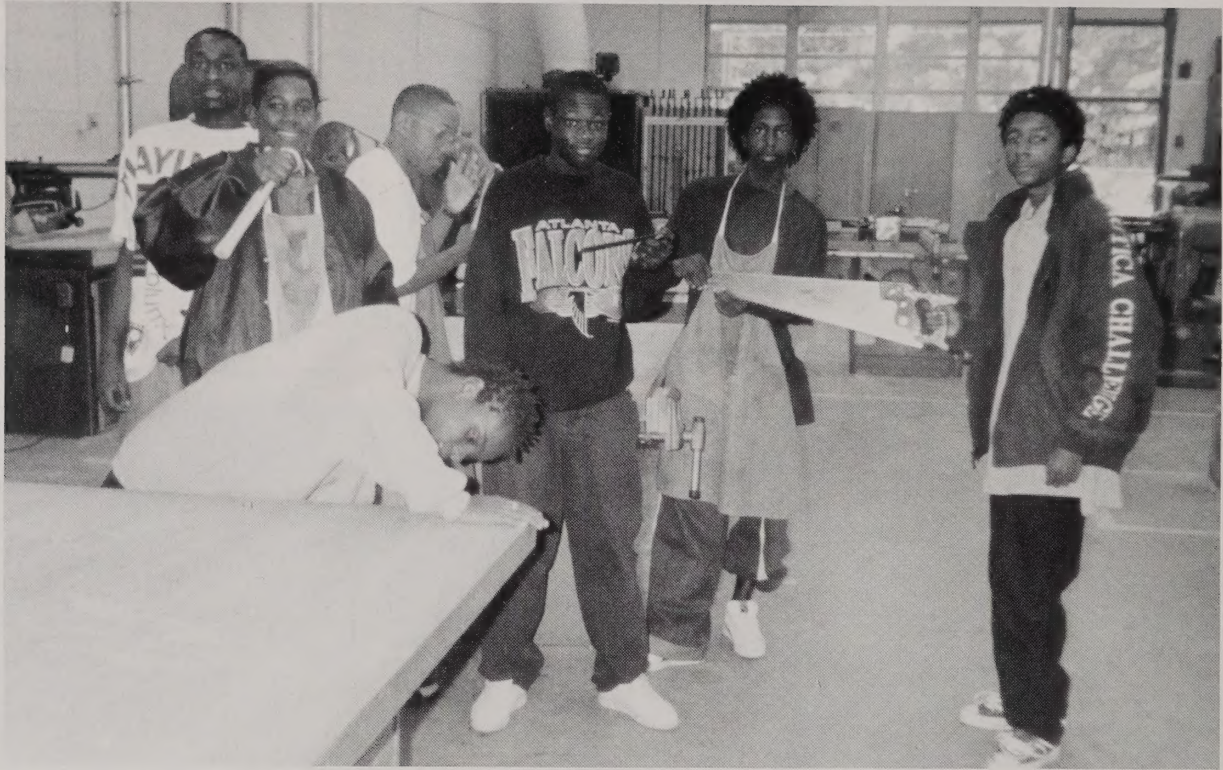

Home economics students learn skills that will serve them well in the work place as well as at home.

Kristy Bynum is a willing student as another student assists her at the sewing machine in Ms. Thompson's class.

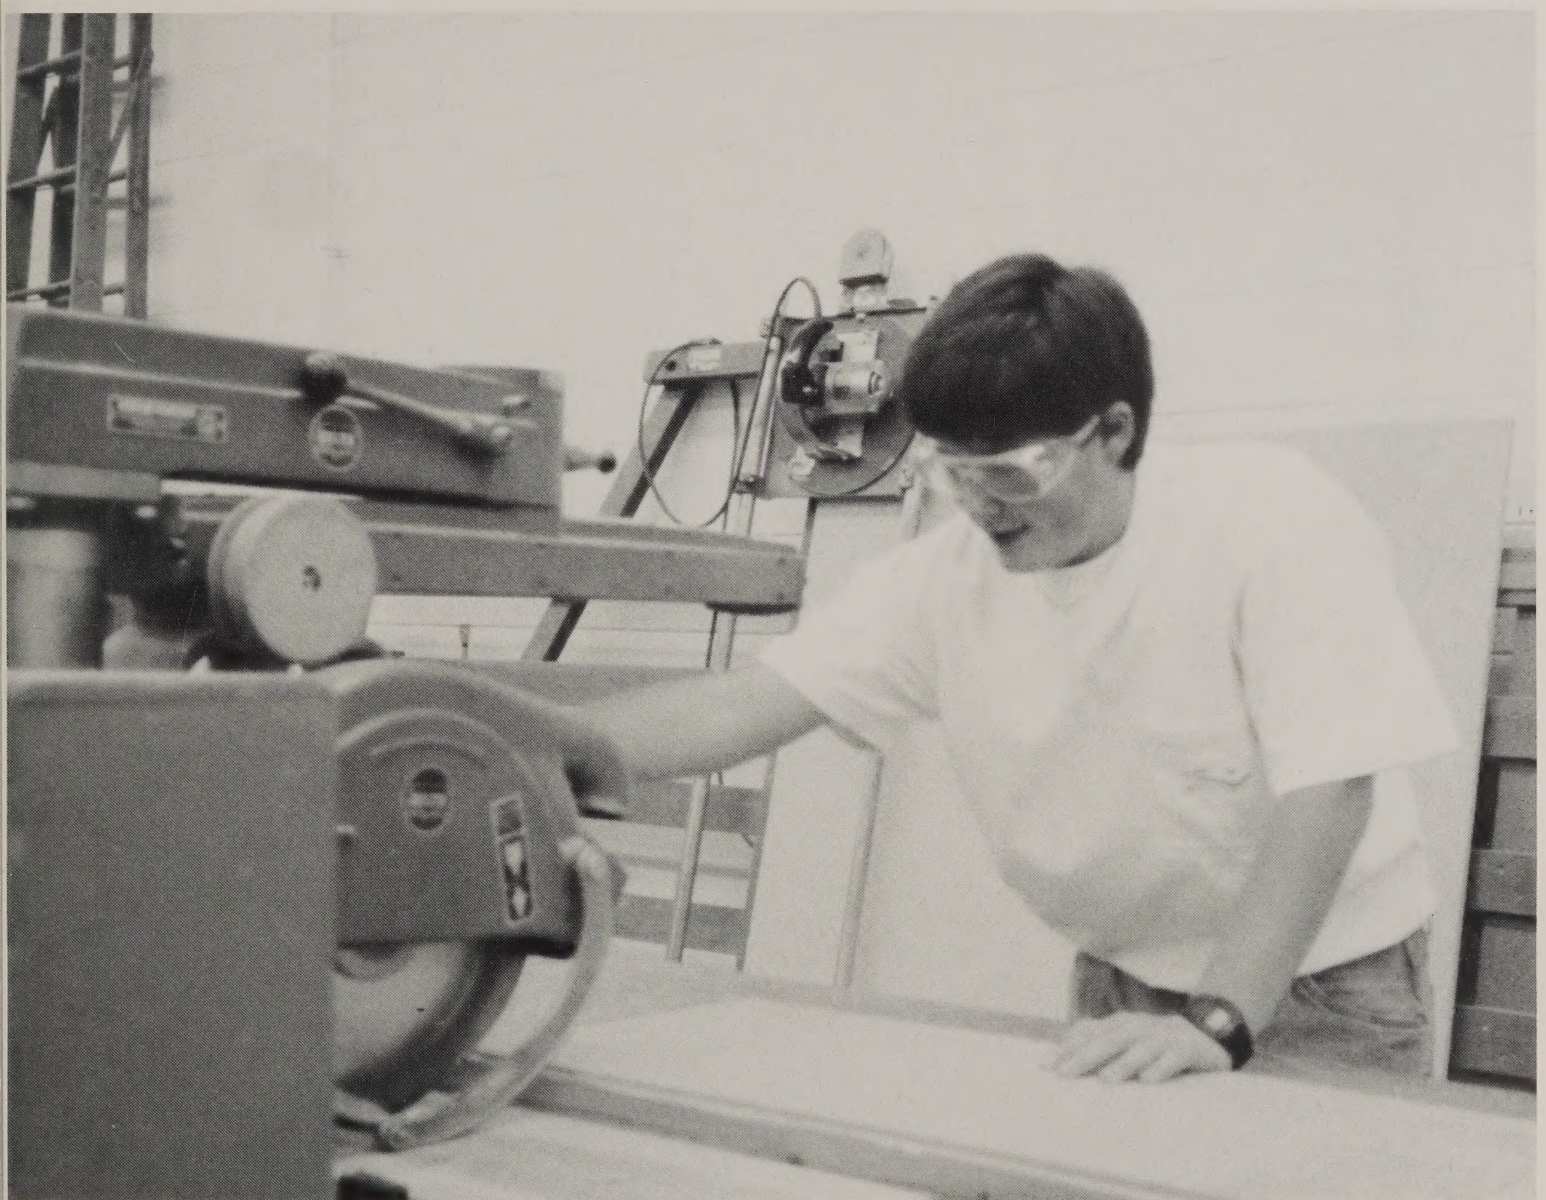

These Tech-Ed students took a moment away from their studies to show off some equipment. Many technical education students gain knowledge that will allow them to enter the work force right after high school graduation.

Technically Correct

Technology Education prepare students for a variety of professions ranging from drafting to photography.

This student has protected himself with safety goggles before using the saw.

Ms. Cromwell beams proudly while student Willie Chappel works diligently at his computer.

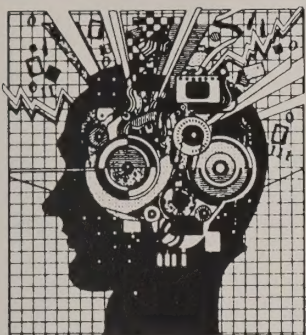

Ms. Cromwell points out the right answer to a waiting student.

A business education is surrounded by the tools and the technology.

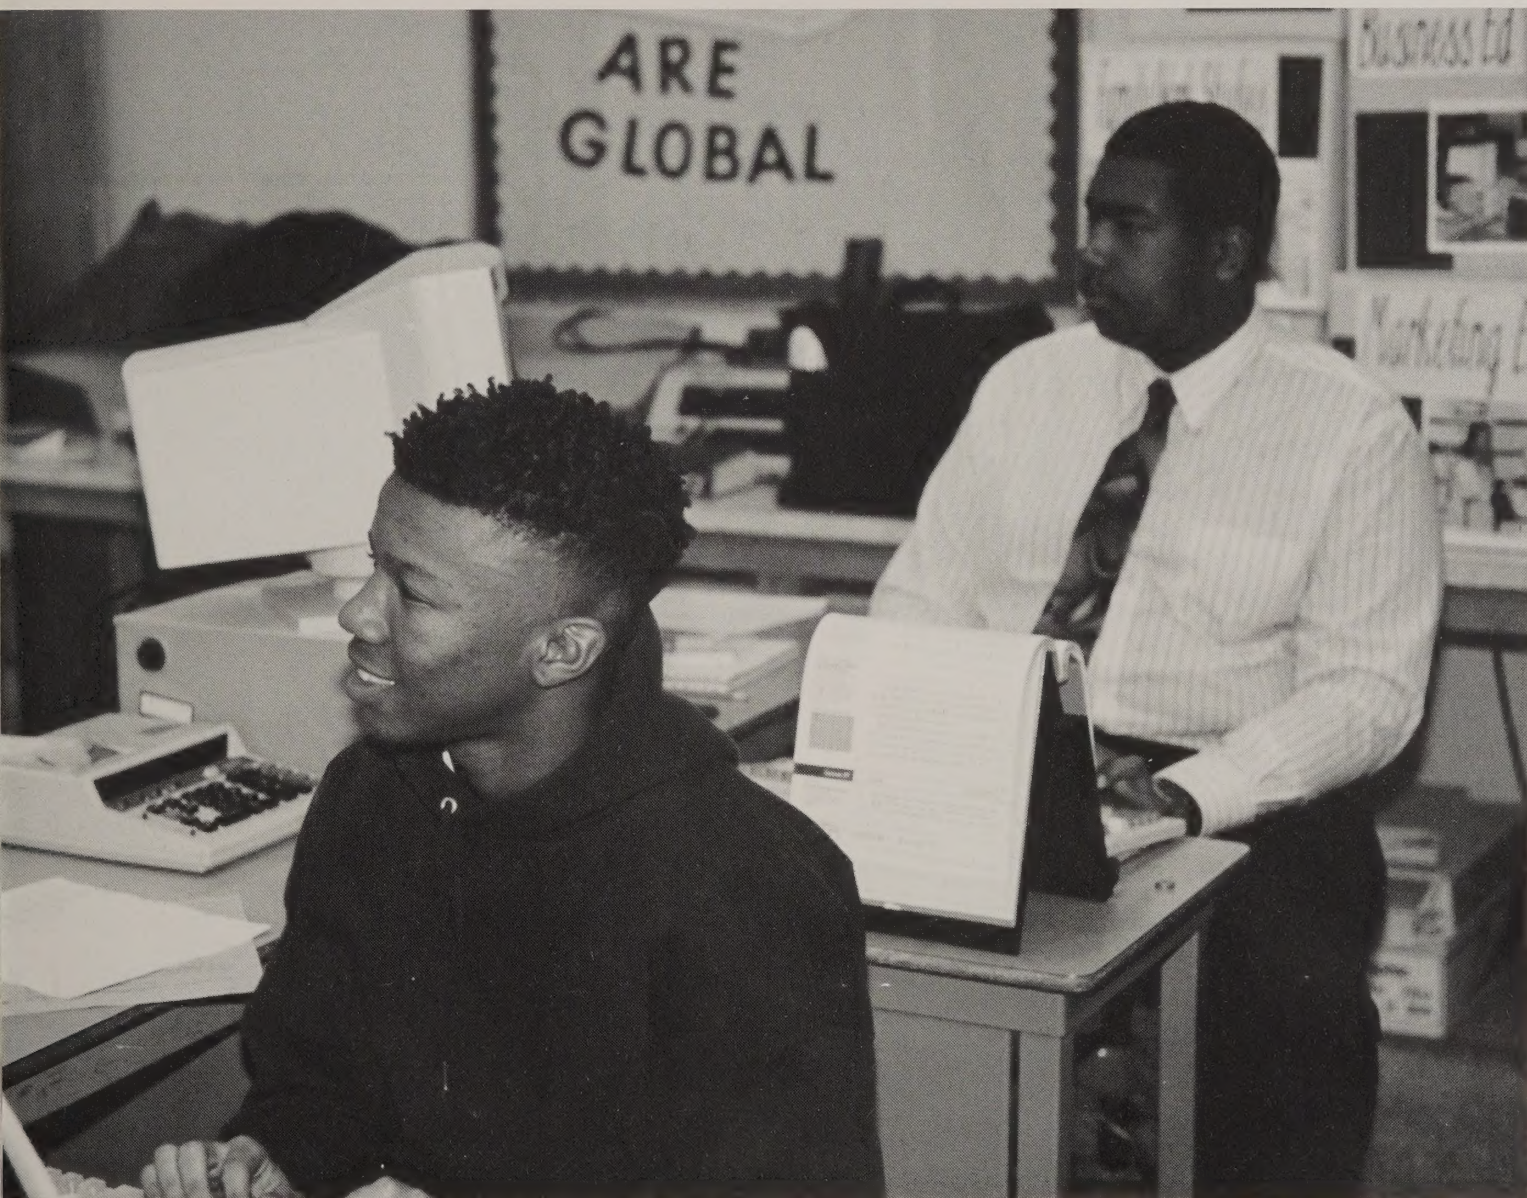

Computers are Global.

Business education students learn the skills that will help them compete in the job market.

Waiting for further instructions from Ms. Cromwell, these students display a business-like demeanor and eagerness to succeed.

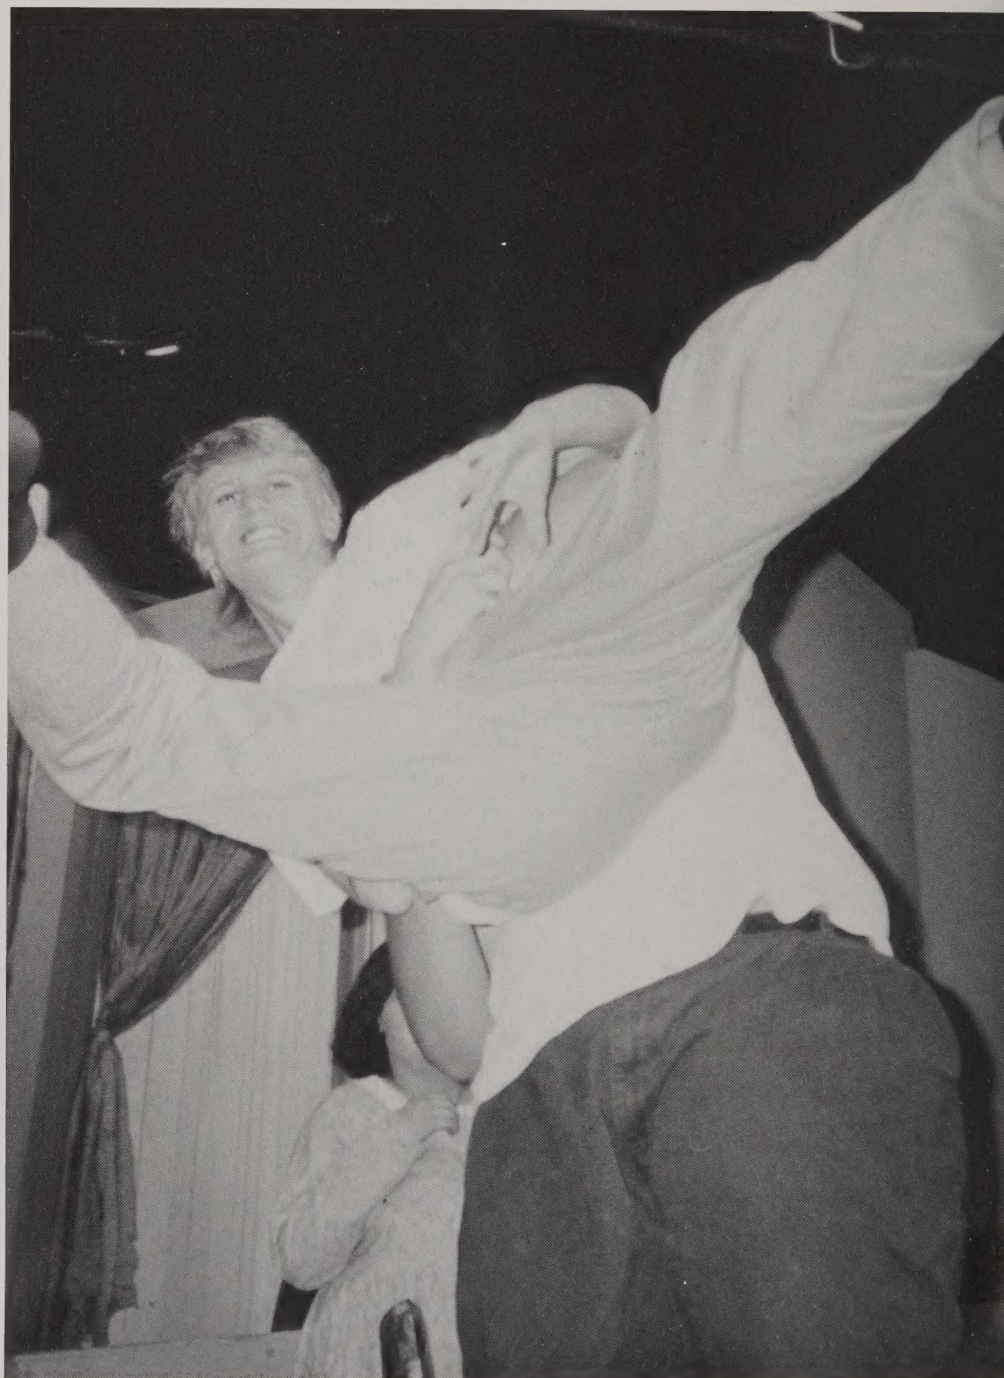

Wendy.
 It's been a fun year
 Hope to see you next year
 Have a cool summer
 Pamela K. B.

"The Diary of Anne Frank" provided another dramatic turn for the Marlin Players.

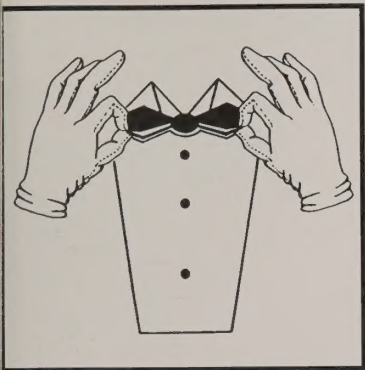

A kiss is just a kiss! This looks pretty realistic for acting.

Flying High!! Drama is not for the fainthearted. These guys performed all their own stunts.

ACT-ION, ACT-ION

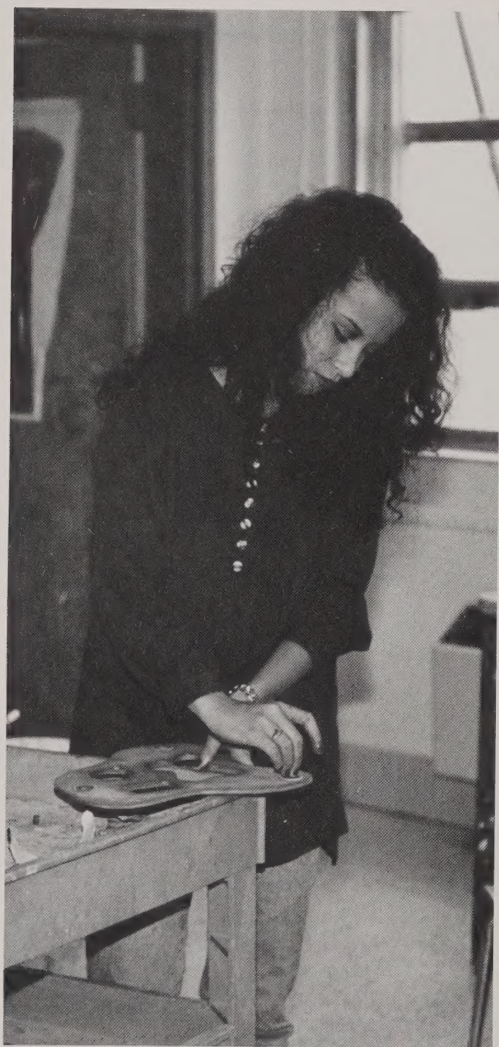

The drama department evoked laughter and tears through a variety of shows.

Drama student Jennifer Crews paints her face for a performance of the rock-n-roll version of "The Three Little Pigs."

Photographer Alvin DayDay demonstrates that he has an artist's eye with this idyllic nature shot. Alvin also designed the yearbook cover.

Getting it just right. This student works carefully to create the perfect work of art.

Clothes and people are often works of art themselves. This is shown through these students' attire and obvious attitudes. Steve OMara is definitely one-of-a-kind!

The Art of Teaching

Bayside teachers have mastered the art of bringing out the best in their students.

Mrs. Davis remains calm and assures her seemingly distressed student that he will come up with an idea for his art project.

Coach Gary Cason stays busy even on hall duty. He holds his students to the same strict standards earning the nickname "Sergeant Cason."

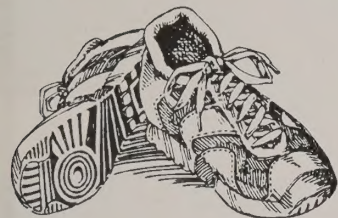

Staff Aide Ron Zollicoffer demonstrates his athletic ability on the basketball court. He still has the right stuff.

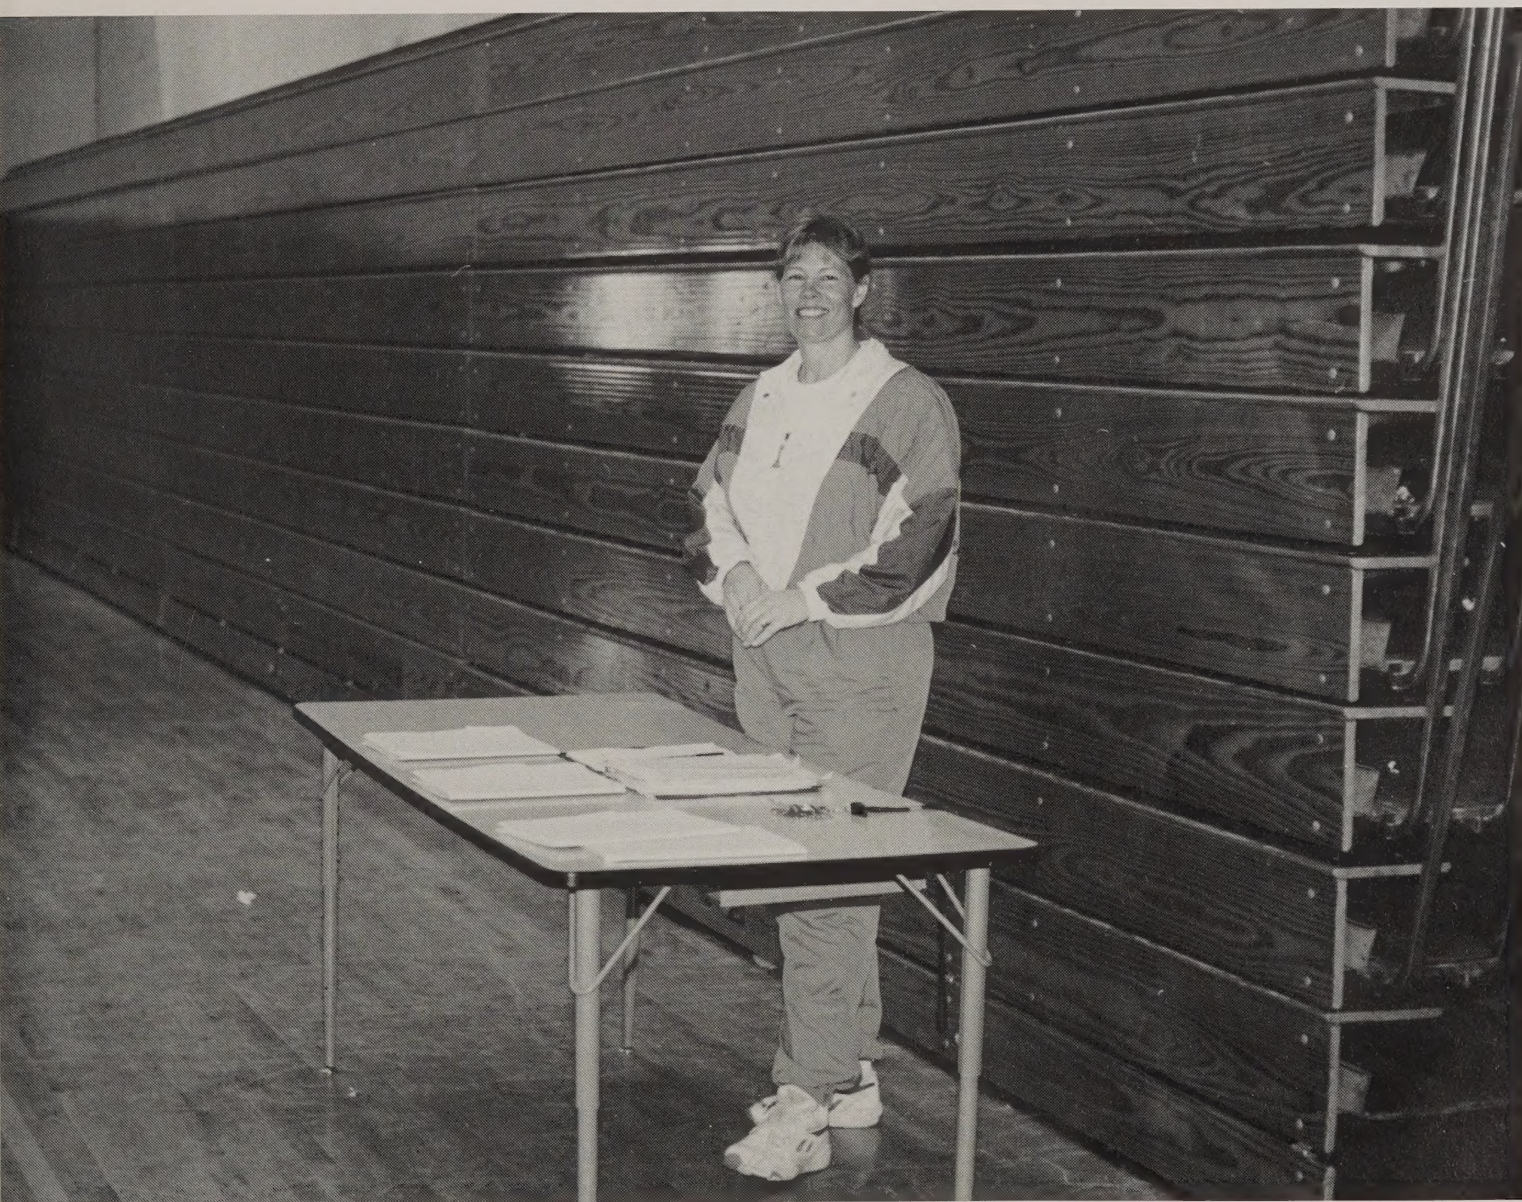

Now you see him; now you don't. This player seems to be in two places at once. His opponents don't seem to be able to keep up.

Beyond the Physical

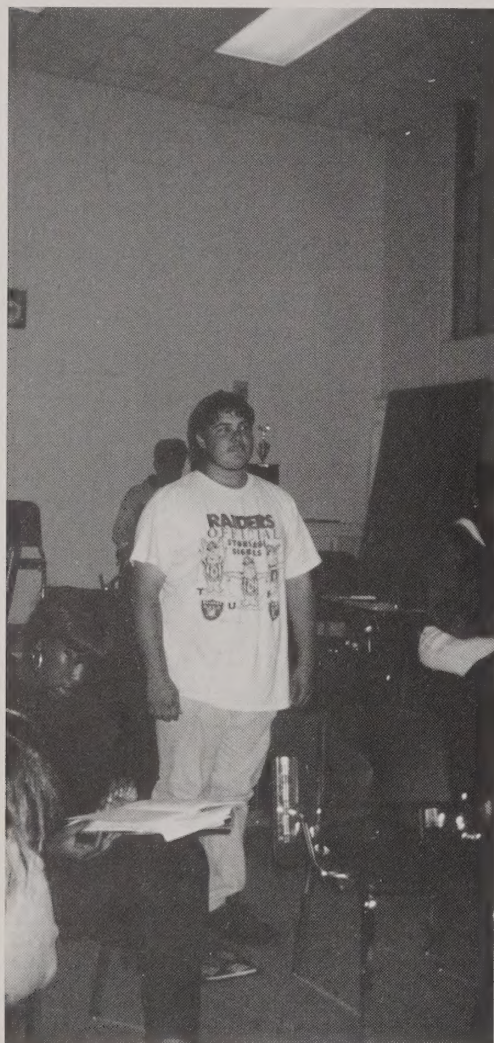

Fitness goes beyond the physical; it affects the mind as well as the body.

Sweet harmony. The contrast of the beautiful performance costumes in the background and the long hours of practice shown here says it all.

Waiting for direction. The solo is the moment of truth for singers. This student waits to prove himself.

Chorus teacher Sheila McWaters-Wilkes offers suggestions and guidance to her students. McWaters-Wilkes is a former Bayside student and Homecoming Queen.

Viva Vocals!!!

The Marlins choruses ran the gamut from gospel to pop, excelling in all arenas.

Chorus stand-out Tylesha Knox puts as much effort into rehearsal as she does in performance.

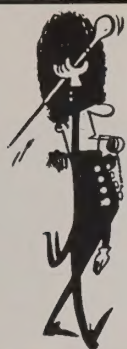

The Marlin drum line looked sharp and sounded great.

The Marching Marlins added color and style to the Homecoming Parade.

The flag corps stood at rest, waiting to perform, during the band's halftime show.

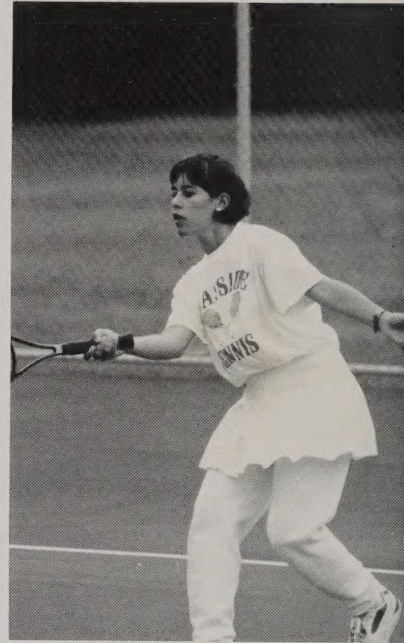

Noted Musicians

Marlin musicians entertained audiences on-stage and on the football field. Musical excellence has become a Bayside tradition.

Orchestra teacher Diane Taylor conducts Orchestra 1 and 2 students during class.

The team listens intently to Coach Jenkins

The Marlins Varsity basketball team had an outstanding year. They finished the season with a 14-8 overall record. During the later part of the season the Marlins won 10 out of 12 games which placed them in the District Tournament Championship.

The Marlins had three players to make the All Beach District Team they include #22 LaShawn Jones first team, #23 Eric Green second team, and #11 Shawn Blassingil honorable mention. The most impressive attribute of this year's team is that 14 out of 15 players return next year! WOW!!!!

Friday night games, school spirit, friends, victory parties; these are words that remind us all of a basketball game. Don't forget the words that describe this year's team. SWEAT, DETERMINATION, PRACTICE, PRACTICE AND THEN MORE PRACTICE. Having the chance to experience and watch the work that these guys put into every day and the determination to win at each game gives these and other athletes the respect that they deserve.

Having seen the show of defeat and the glimmer of victory in these players' eyes gives a new insight into the game. To many people, a basketball game only represents a night out with their friends and a chance to show their spirit for a friend or someone special. To the players, these games are more than that. Each game could be their one chance for glory.

When asked who is the best player on the team, once can't give just one name. All of the players were great. Each one added their own special touch. This team never gave in to defeat. The Marlins did whatever Coach Jenkins asked. They rose to every challenge.

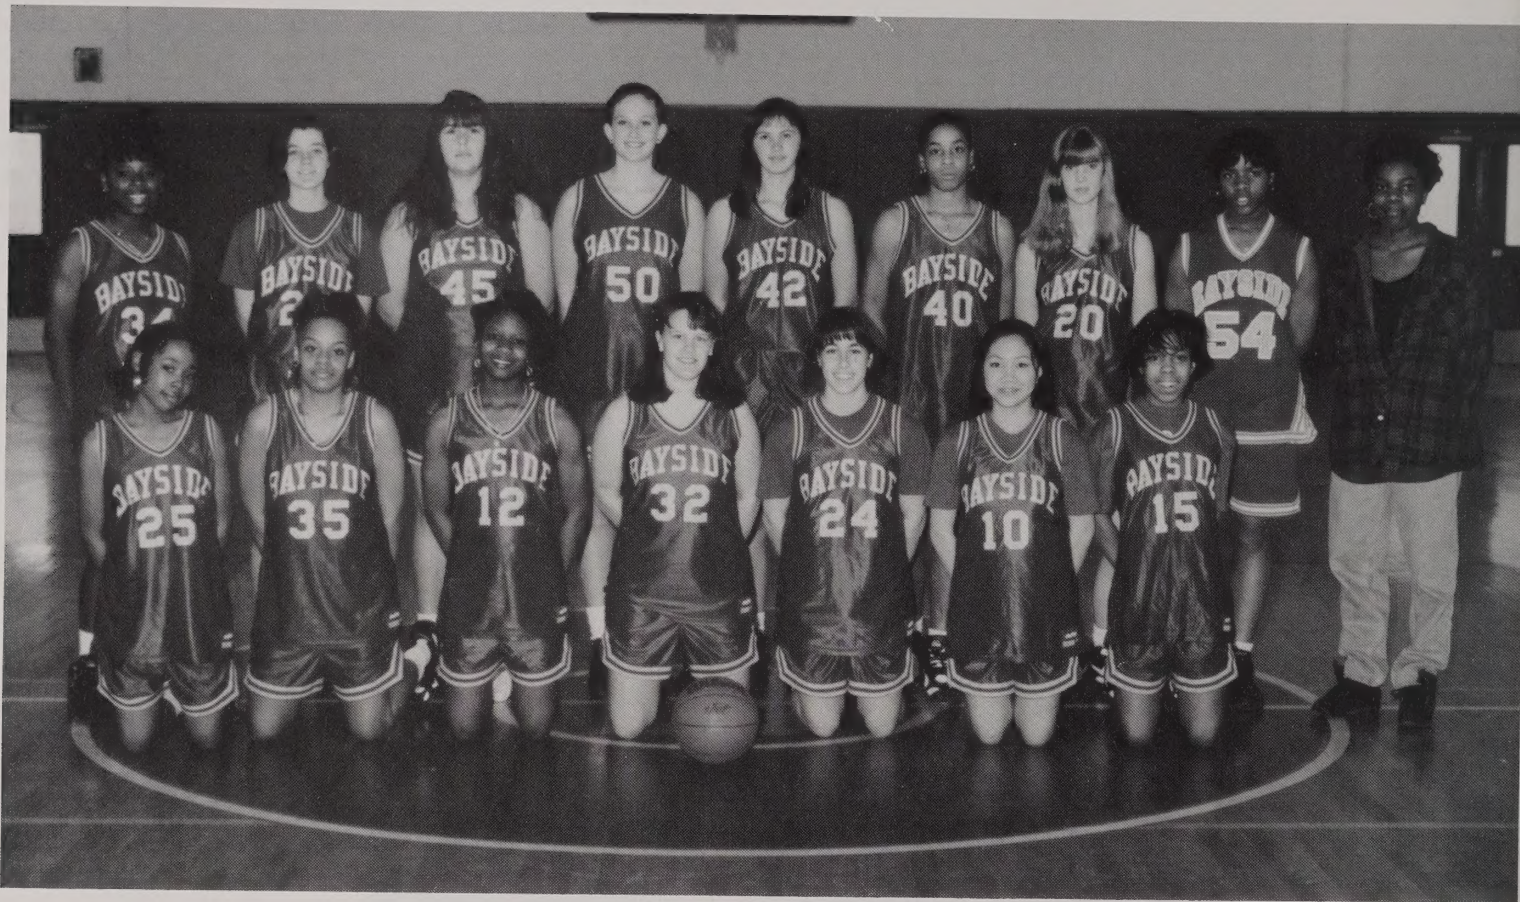

The Marlins were an inspiration to the whole school. They gave us a glimmer of hope for next year. The rookies for next year have some large shoes to fill. Congratulations, Marlins Basketball team.

Girl's J.V. Basketball

Record 0-12

The J.V. Lady Marlins had a tough season mainly due to their inexperience. Although the record does not show it, the team improved tremendously throughout the season. Strong Performances by such players as Amber Stout, soph, Aretha Williams, fresh, and Allegra McClenny, fresh, led the Lady Marlins to a competitive season.

CHEERLEADERS!

Co-Captain Lisa Hughes gives a lift to Co-Captain Laura Gregory.

Lisa Hughes finished out her senior year in fitting style. As Bayside High's sole senior CHEERLEADER, Lisa was selected at the summer CHEERLEADING camp at North Carolina State University to be a member of the "Champion All-American High School CHEERLEADING Squad".

As part of the honor, Lisa took part in cheering for a "Wolfpack" football game in October, and later had the opportunity to participate in the "Hula Bowl" festivities in Honolulu HI. She represented herself and our school proudly!

Sophomore Courtney Jarrett was selected as a finalist for All-American consideration and was selected "Champion Jumper" at camp.

MS CASPER'S CHARIOT DEMONSTRATED THE MARLIN SPIRIT. THE JV SQUAD HELPED CHEER THE MARLINS ON TO A MAJOR HOMECOMING VICTORY.

The year began with tryouts in June 1993. The J.V. squad after selection were excited to begin their roles as school leaders. After CHEERLEADING camp at the University of North Carolina State and extensive summer practices, the J.V. cheerleaders wanted to share their knowledge and excitement and make their contribution to the Bayside family.

The focuses this year were excellent Marlin spirit, enthusiastic participation and setting the example of good sportsmanship. We all learned a great deal this year about self discipline, teamwork, goal setting, and organization. The cheerleaders have realized that they are not only just teammates, but also best friends.

A "Special Thanks" goes out to our teachers, coaches, administrators, and parents for their never ending support.

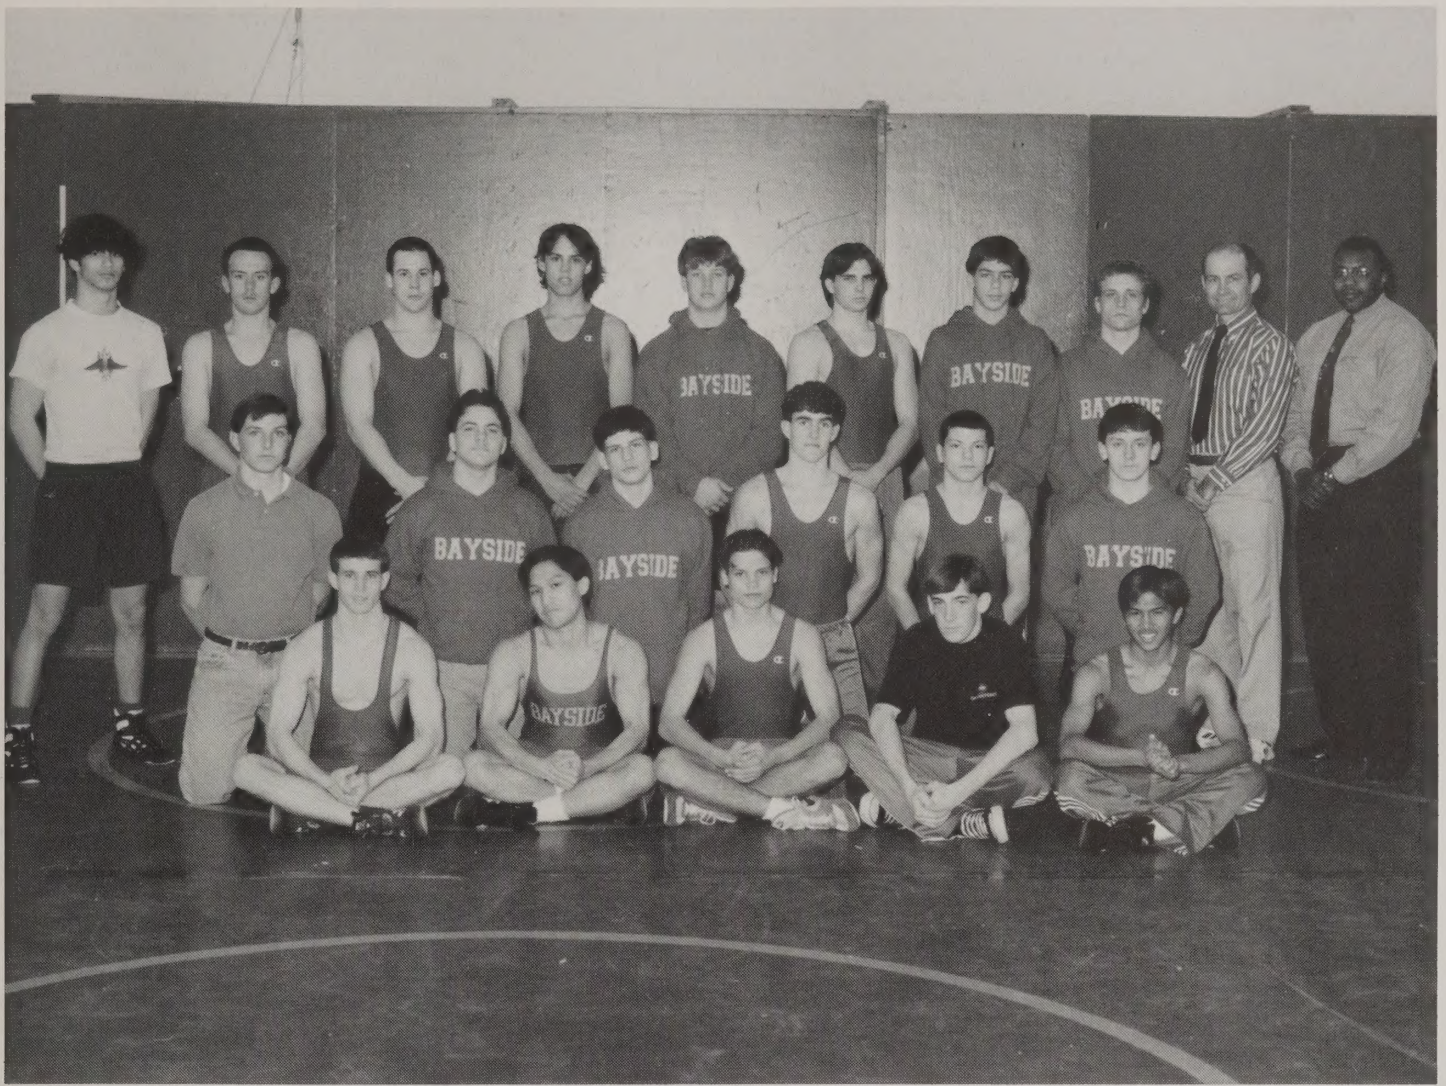

"Cheers and best wishes to the class of 94"

Hangin' With

Mrs. Cooper cuts up with SCA officers.

A quiet moment for "Coop."

Mrs. Cooper

If you have ever been active in S.C.A. or taken U.S. Virginia History you've seen a bright-eyed, talkative, humorous teacher called "Coop" by her closest students and friends but known officially as Mrs. Cooper. Mrs. Cooper has been teaching since the late 1960's. She displays a rare combination of patience, experience, and authority.

She began her career as a teacher before the Vietnam War in Oklahoma City. During the Vietnam War, she enlisted in the Navy Officer program in Oklahoma. She was after the first seven women to be sent to an aviation squadron. She flew in the A4 Jet whenever the opportunity came. In fact she even carried her wedding gifts in the tanks attached to the jets. Although she was a great Naval Officer, she is indeed a much better teacher. Her classes are described as entertaining, fun, interesting, and extremely educational. She has brought knowledge of life, the military, and courage to all of her students. Alma Magtibay is quoted as saying "Coop has always been there for me when I needed her. She always stood by me, but most importantly I can always count on her for a good college recommendation!"

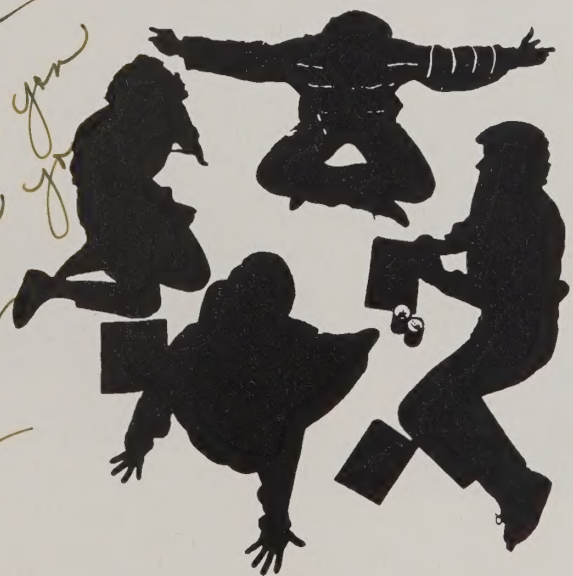

Mrs. Cooper doesn't ask for much she just loves giving her all for her students, no matter how much it takes. When asked how she wants to be remembered by her graduating seniors, Coop simply replies want to be remembered as a teacher that made history interesting and important, as well as a person that cares about young people and how they grow into ethical, loving, exciting adults. Mrs. Cooper you're making Bayside Proud!!!!

"Coop" cuts up in class.

Wendy -
What would I do without you?
You have been my right arm
this year. I have a great summer come see me. I know I put a great deal on you but its because I can rely on you
Thanks
Copper

Mom and Dad,
Thanks for all your support, understanding, and love throughout the years. I love you very much and always will. Thanks again.

Anita S. (Fee-Fee) and Kim P. — I love you!
Friends Forever

Thanks to everyone else who helped me out. You know who you are. I love you, too.

You are a special person. Thank you for all dedication, patience, and support. Your parents are lucky to have a son such as you. For myself, I would clone you if I could. I couldn't have made it without you. Your talent goes far beyond being a fantastic photographer; you're a wonderful person. Here's to a great future.
Fondly,
Ms. Best

COLOPHON

Volume 30 of Bayside High School's Mariner was printed by Jostens Printing and Publishing at the Hunter plant in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The 1994 Mariner had a press run of 950 copies with 192 pages.

The cover is 9x12 black matte grain with an applied two color metal- alay of red and gold. Goudy light type was used for all body copy. Headlines were printed in 48 point and sub-headlines were printed in 36 point. Body copy was printed in 10 point and captions were printed in 8 point.

The Mariner staff photographed over 70 percent of all pictures used in the book. The cover was designed by Alvin DayDay. The yearbook is an extracurricular activity. The staff worked on a five consignment deadline.

Bayside's Jostens representative was Mr. Joe Boocks. The school's LifeTouch Photographs representative was Mr. Tom Knox. The completion of this book would have been impossible without their expertise and assistance.

Looking Back and Looking Ahead

As we say goodbye to high school, we also say hello to the future. We'll look back on the good times and smile. We'll remember our friends and teachers and experiences. We've pushed ourselves to the limits, it is time to try new challenges. As we walk away, we'll look back. And smile.
